

Ann Landers Declares Emphatically:

It Isn't Worth The Risk If You 'Go All The Way'

This is the fourth of 10 articles condensed from the new book, "Ann Landers Talks to Teen-Agers About Sex," copyright, 1964, by Prentice-Hall, Inc.

By ANN LANDERS

Oliver Wendell Holmes said, "No generalization is worth a damn—including this one."

So let's avoid generalizations and get to specifics. It isn't enough any more for a mother to tell her 16-year-old daughter, "Nice girls don't do that." Her daughter may just happen to know some nice (but stupid) girls who do.

What am I saying? That a girl can be nice even though she goes all the way? Yes. The girl can be nice—but the girl is not very bright.

I may be criticized by some religious leaders for taking this position, but those who hope to frighten teen-agers into line with hell-fire speeches had better wake up and smell the coffee—because the kids aren't buying.

RELIGIOUS TRAINING and strict adherence to moral codes may keep some teen-agers from going across the line, but too many teen-agers want other reasons. The lofty concept that virtue is its own reward "makes a nice embroidered sampler—to be framed and hung in grandmother's kitchen" wrote one teen-ager.

Even the lovely word "chastity" has an old-fashioned ring to it—like "chaperon" or "Minuet in G."

Only a fool would tell a teen-ager to stop thinking about sex. You may as well tell the sun to stop shining. Teen-agers are thinking about sex, and they will continue to think about it. What they need is sound information so they will know HOW to think about it.

For too many years the subject of sex among teen-agers was soft-pedaled. There was a widely held theory that frank discussion might excite undue curiosity.

"DON'T GIVE the kids ideas" is the way it was put.

Well, the kids already have ideas, and many of them have put the ideas into practice. Adult silence serves only to widen the gap between two generations which already are too far apart. I am a strong advocate of open discussion—and the more open the better.

The cold, blunt facts are these: I know from the hundreds of letters I get each week from young people that a shockingly high percentage of high school students, by the time they reach their junior year, have had some experience with the opposite sex.

By "experience" I mean more than necking and petting. I mean sexual relations.

Boys Vs. Girls

Most boys view sex differently than girls. The boy in his teens rarely sees any connection between sex and love. He often has no emotional investment in the girl. He merely is responding to his biological urge. His attitude is: "Why not? A normal guy has to."

It is not uncommon for a teenage boy to use sex as a "proving ground" or a prop for his ego. He may try out a girl just to see if he can make the grade because he has heard other boys have.

SEX FREQUENTLY IS used not only by teen-agers but by adults as an escape from a world which they find difficult and demanding. Sex provides them with momentary excitement, a feeling of importance and even power.

It diverts the mind from the central problem—a nagging feeling of inferiority—real or imagined. In other words, some

Republicans Offer Plan On Health

Claim It's Most Comprehensive Yet Given To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six Republican senators offered legislation today to provide a public-private health care plan for the aged that they described as the most comprehensive yet presented to Congress.

One part would provide 45 days of hospital care, up to 180 days of skilled nursing home care, or more than 200 days of home health care following treatment in a hospital for all persons 65 or over.

This would be financed by an increase of 1/2 to 1 per cent in the Social Security pay roll tax to be deposited in a separate health fund.

The other part of the program would create a national, federally chartered association of private insurance and group service companies which would authorize a standard medical-surgical policy for those over 65.

By enabling private insurance firms to pool their risks, a standard policy could be made available at a cost of about $2 a week, sponsors estimated.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., chief spokesman for the sponsors of the measure, called it "the program with the best chance of becoming law in 1964." It is based on the recommendations of the National Committee on Health Care of the Aged, which submitted its findings to the late President John F. Kennedy on Nov. 14.

The American Medical Association opposed and Congress stymied Kennedy's program to provide hospital, nursing and out-patient care for the elderly by boosting the Social Security tax on employer and employee 1/4 of 1 per cent.

The House Ways and Means Committee is to resume hearings on the administration bill Monday, Wednesday, President Johnson reaffirmed his support for the measure and predicted it "is going to be the law of the land."

"We have just begun to fight," the President told leaders of organizations of senior citizens at a White House meeting. He emphasized that under the plan the insured would be able to choose his own physician and hospital.

Javits said he thinks the bill offered by the Republican senators has the best chance of winning broad bipartisan support.

Joining him in offering the measure were Sens. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Kenneth B. Keating of New York, Thomas H. Kuchel of California and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

Salem Area Driver Held In Road Fatality

LISBON—First of the secret indictments returned by the January Grand Jury was revealed Wednesday when Raymond S. Stokes, 19, of Salem R. D. appeared in Common Pleas Court to have bond set on a charge of second degree manslaughter in a double traffic death.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard set $1,000 bond, which Stokes posted and was released pending arraignment Monday. His wife, Bonnie, 18, was killed in a collision July 22 at the intersection of Routes 45 and 344 and Rogers, veered off the roadway, struck a culvert then went into a snowbank, officers said.

She was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

A pickup truck driven by Burton Curtis, 50, of East Palestine R. D. 1, headed northwest on County Rd. 428 just south of Rogers, veered off the roadway, struck a culvert then went into a snowbank, officers said.

UNREST IN PANAMA. University of Panama students demonstrated in front of the National Palace Wednesday. The students were demonstrating against the idea of resuming diplomatic relations with the U.S. Panamanian President Roberto Chiari told the demonstrators Panama would not resume diplomatic relations until he receives assurances that negotiations will be held for a new treaty governing the Canal Zone. U.S. Being Pressed On New Treaty

Law And Order In Zone Reverted To Governor Fleming

PANAMA (AP)—The Panama Canal Zone reverted to American civilian rule today from temporary military control even as Panama pressed the United States to agree to negotiate a new treaty.

Gen. Andrew P. O'Meara, commanding general of the U.S. Army Southern Command, returned the zone to the direction of Gov. Robert J. Fleming Jr.

O'Meara had taken over responsibility for law and order and administrative functions last Friday at the height of the violence that left four U.S. soldiers and 19 Panamanians dead.

President Roberto Chiari told newsmen that despite Wednesday's agreement to resume diplomatic relations as quickly as possible, he is going ahead with a complete rupture unless Washington agrees to negotiate a new pact.

Chiari said he would call the rest of his diplomatic personnel home from Washington and ask the U.S. government to withdraw its staff from Panama City. He said Costa Rica would represent Panama in Washington. But he set no time schedule for the withdrawals.

Chiari broke relations last Friday, during violence along the Canal Zone border that cost the lives of 21 Panamanians and 4 U.S. soldiers. So far he has recalled only Ambassador Augusto Arango from Washington, and the two governments talked steadily together until they reached the agreement Wednesday under auspices of the Organization of the American States.

In Washington, the U.S. government insisted it had not agreed to negotiate a new treaty, only to discuss all issues between the two countries once diplomatic relations are resumed. There was no indication that the United States would bow to Chiari's demand.

Officials in Washington were concerned over the situation but said they had no notification from Panama of intention to make a complete break. U.S. officials still hoped that the

Ohio Power Expands

District Electric Projects Slated

Projects serving Wellsville and Toronto are planned by the Ohio Power Co. in its announced expenditures of $31 1/2 million planned this year in an ever-continuing program of expanding and improving facilities which provide electric service for 485,000 customers in 53 counties.

Included in the company's construction blueprint for 1964 are several major projects, some of which will be launched this year and others to be advanced or completed.

Some of these projects are in the new Division 1, with headquarters in Steubenville, and which includes East Liverpool, Bellaire, Barnesville, Dillonvale, Cadiz, Wellsville, Wintersville, Toronto and other communities.

AGAIN this year, the bulk of the expenditures will go for construction of new, and the modernization of existing, transmission and distribution facilities.

"This is a continuation of the greatest line - and - substation building program in our history," W. S. Welday, manager of Division 1, said.

"All these projects are not urgently needed today, but are designed to assure that customer needs are met into the 1970's and beyond."

Of the total planned expenditures for the next 12 months, $6 million is tabbed for early construction of Cardinal Plant, being built at Brilliant, by Ohio Power in conjunction with 30 rural electric co-operatives in Ohio.

THE FIRST of two 615,000-kilowatt power - producing units will go into service in July 1966, and the second the following February. Ohio Power plans to spend more than half its $60-million investment in the plant during 1965 and about $23 million more in 1966.

That part of Cardinal's energy earmarked for customers of the 30 co-ops throughout Ohio will be transmitted, under contract, to the co-ops' load centers via the transmission systems of six of the state's principal electric utilities, including Ohio Power.

Groundbreaking ceremonies at the plant site were held Nov. 4 and the early stages of excavation work now are under way.

Largest of the power delivery projects in Division 1 is a $620-

Johnson Asks Cut On Ships, Missile Fund

Also Urges Boost Of $300 Million In Spending On Planes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson is asking Congress to cut spending on missiles and ships by more than a billion dollars and to increase spending on planes by $300 million.

This was revealed Wednesday when the Defense Department sent Congress its authorization request for the 1965 fiscal year.

The request included $10.6 billion for procurement of missiles, ships and planes. Last year, Congress appropriated $11.4 billion for procurement.

Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee that must consider the request, said "I am not disturbed at all" by the requested cut in procurement spending.

"We will see what the justification is when the hearings begin," he continued.

Vinson said the committee would begin its hearings on Jan. 27. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is scheduled as the first witness.

The authorization bill actually totaled $17.2 billion—the largest authorization ever sent to Congress by the Defense Department.

But Vinson pointed out that this figure included an authorization of $6.6 billion for research and development. In the past, Congress has not included research and development in the annual military authorization bill.

The department's authorization request presages even deeper cuts in the military procurement program. Congress usually appropriates less money than it authorizes.

The timing of the authorization bill came as a surprise because it preceded the scheduled date for President Johnson's budget message by almost a week.

Aliquippa Man Killed By Gun In Argument

ALQUIPPA—Wilbur Fultz, 45, was charged formally with murder early today in connection with the fatal shooting of Charles Gill, 29, in an argument at the apartment of Dollie Elizabeth Barfield, police reported.

Dr. John W. Colavincenzo, Beaver County coroner, said Gill died of a .38-caliber pistol bullet in his heart. Fultz lodged in Beaver County Jail after arraignment before Justice of the Peace Nick Kosanovich of Aliquippa. Police said Fultz fled the apartment after the shooting at 1 a. m., but was found a short time later in another apartment in Hopewell.

Head-On Car Crash Hurts 2 Area Women

Station Wagon And Auto Hit On Curve; Calcutta Man Cited

Two area women were in City Hospital today with injuries suffered in a head-on collision of a car and station wagon in California Hollow early this morning.

Miss Geraldine Lonkert, 20, of Glenmoor, driver of the auto, was in "good" condition, and Mrs. Alice Gamble, 43, of Calcutta, passenger in the station wagon, was in "fair" condition.

The mishap occurred at 12:20 a. m. on the three-lane section of Route 30 on a curve between Higg's Inn and the former York residence.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Miss Lonkert, head-north, was passing a semi-trailer truck when her 1955 sedan was struck by the south-bound 1954 station wagon of Ben H. Gamble, 50, of Calcutta, who was in the northbound passing lane.

Miss Lonkert, daughter of Oliver Lonkert of Glenmoor, suffered bruises of the right forearm and abrasions of the right knee.

Mrs. Gamble, wife of the driver, suffered concussion, a fractured nose, cuts of the forehead and left temple and abrasions of the knees and legs.

Gamble was treated for a cut of the left eyelid and laceration of the left hand and was released.

The two vehicles were heavily damaged, officers said.

Gamble was charged with unsafe operation.

A Lisbon area woman was cited after a two-car collision at the intersection of Route 267 and the Y. & O. Rd. at Glenmoor yesterday morning.

The patrol said a car operated by Emma C. Walker, 56, of Lisbon R. D. 3, headed southeast on County Rd. 424, pulled into the intersection and collided with the auto driven by Alan Lee Cornell, 19, of 600 Belmar Ave.

She was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

A pickup truck driven by Burton Curtis, 50, of East Palestine R. D. 1, headed northwest on County Rd. 428 just south of Rogers, veered off the roadway, struck a culvert then went into a snowbank, officers said.

Potters Bank Gets Building In Expansion

The Potters Bank & Trust Co. announced today it has purchased a two-story building at the rear of the bank from Dallis Brothers Enterprise, Inc.

Gordon E. Starkey, president, said the bank will take possession of the property on June 30 from the Dallis firm of John D. Dallis, president, and Stratton D. (Steve) Dallis, secretary-treasurer.

The building will be used "for increased services to our customers and to accommodate our own expanded needs," Starkey said.

Situated at Washington St. and Drury Ln., the building houses the Washington Lunch operated by the Dallis brothers and the Music Manor operated by Eric Young and Gene Jenkins on the first floor, and a beauty shop and apartments on the second floor.

Officers and directors of the bank were re-elected for new one-year terms Tuesday.

Shareholders re-elected C. M. Chambers, Frank A. Dawson, John T. Hall, S. T. Hilbert, William B. Louthan, William D. Ogilvie, Sidney C. Porter, Donald D. Shay, Lawrence W. Smith, Starkey, M. W. Thompson, Leonard C. Webber and A. A. Wells as directors. Thompson is chairman of the board.

The directors met later and renamed Starkey as president; Chambers, cashier and secretary; H. W. Johnston and Donald R. McGillivray, vice presidents; Lester B. Jones and Clarence L. Weaver Jr., assistant cashiers, and L. H. Keay, assistant cashier and manager of the Wellsville branch.

Mercury Rise Will Speed Up Snow Melting

Scattered Flurries Due Tonight With Another Freeze

Temperatures were expected to climb into the mid-30's today to quicken the pace of melting of the Tri-State District's heavy blanket of snow.

The thaw started slowly Wednesday under sunny skies with the mercury going above the freezing point the first time this week.

Street Supt. W. M. Laughlin said the Ceramic lot was scheduled for clearing Wednesday night, but the job was impossible because motorists failed to heed a parking ban and the lot was jammed with cars.

The downtown had a reading of 22 degrees at 6 a. m., the same mark recorded at the Stratton Dam, which had a 32 yesterday afternoon at 4. Tonight's low will be 17 to 23 with scattered snow flurries likely.

An all-out snow-clearing effort continued today in East Liverpool, but Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vredy said

7th St., Ceramic Lot Slated For Cleaning

A parking ban will go into effect at 11 tonight to permit removal of snow from W. 7th St. between Jackson and Jefferson Sts. and the city-operated metered parking lot on the site of the former Ceramic Theater.

Public Hearing Set On Freeway Project

A public hearing will be held Jan. 30 at the Lisbon Village Hall by the Ohio Department of Highways for airing arguments for and against the proposed extension of the Freeway north of East Liverpool.

The new 3.3-mile section will extend from State Route 170 northwest to Apples Corners, according to tentative plans of the department at Columbus.

It will pass through parts of St. Clair and Madison Township, and will involve relocation of about a half mile of Route 267 in the approach to the new section, and relocation about two-thirds of a mile of Route 7 at the intersection with the new limited access route.

The hearing will be held at 10.30 a. m.

Plant Blast Kills Worker At Bellaire

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP)—The third blast in as many months at the plant of the Ohio Fireworks Co. on Ohio 214 east of here took the life of a 41-year-old workman Wednesday.

Killed instantly in the explosion in a new mixing shed was Eugene Wiggins of Bellaire, a long-time employee of the company.

Wiggins' body was not discovered until some time after the blast at the isolated shed, since the investigation was delayed until danger of possible other explosions had passed. The explosion mangled the body, observers said.

Company officials said they did not know the cause of the blast.

Three months ago an explosion on the plant grounds, which contains a complex of buildings isolated from each other for safety purposes, injured one workman fatally and caused an estimated $150,000 damage.

Not long after that original blast, there was another minor blast and fire at the plant but no one was hurt and damage was small.

Democratic Bid Hinted

Glenn May Reveal Today Plans To Run For Senate

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—World-famous astronaut John Glenn Jr. may reveal today if he plans to leave the space venture to run for U.S. senator from Ohio.

Glenn would not comment Wednesday on rising published speculation that he definitely will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination in Ohio's May 5 primary. He said, however, he would issue a statement this morning through the Manned Spacecraft Center, probably from public affairs officer Paul Haney.

In Washington, a source close to the situation confirmed the validity of the report that Glenn would challenge incumbent Sen. Stephen M. Young of Cleveland for the nomination.

Glenn would not say if he planned a trip to Columbus to personally announce his candidacy.

"Someone has done some surmising on their own," was the only comment from the 42-year-old astronaut.

Ohio State Democratic Chairman William L. Coleman said in Columbus he had not heard of a decision by Glenn to enter the race but he understood the astronaut planned to be in Columbus.

He said he had no plans at present to meet with the astronaut.

Glenn has said previously that if he decided to run for the U.S. Senate this year, he will announce his candidacy in his home state of Ohio.

"I think that is what I would do," he said, "if that is the decision I would make."

Glenn said then he never gave a flat "no" to politics.

"I have never said one way or the other," he said.

Rumors have persisted for weeks that Glenn, a native of New Concord, Ohio, would enter the Ohio primary against Young. Wednesday the speculation seemed all but ended when various sources reported Glenn's decision, in the affirmative, had been made.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said it had not been advised of a decision

Ex-Parochial Principal Dies

Sister M. Cyline of Canton, the former Delores Esper before she took the vows of the Order of the Sisters of Notre Dame, and former principal of St. Alloysius Parochial School, died Wednesday about 2:37 a. m. at the Cleveland Provincial Infirmary. She had been in ill health for several months.

She served here from 1961 through October 1962. She had been in the order for 25 years and for many years was demonstration teacher at the Catholic University at Washington. She was a former assistant provincial to the Canton Province. At the time of her death she held the office of local superior at the Mary Hill Convent in Canton. She was a former member of St. Francis Parish in Cleveland before entering her vocational field.

Turtle Didn't Want

To Wander Very Far

SEGO, Ohio — While hunting mushrooms, Willard Swinehart came across a box turtle. Examining its shell, he found three sets of initials, the community name "Sego" and the year 1914 inscribed.

Swinehart recalled that his father had caught a turtle and made those inscriptions almost a half-century earlier. The turtle had changed little in size, Swinehart said, and was within 150 feet of where his father found it originally.

Bob Kennedy In Tokyo To Seek Sukarno

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy arrived in Tokyo today for talks with President Sukarno of Indonesia in an effort to cool Indonesia's hostility toward the new Federation of Malaysia.

The late president's brother arrived by Air Force jet with his wife, Ethel. It is his first assignment by President Johnson as a diplomatic troubleshooter.

Kennedy said he is counting on a "bond of friendship between the United States and Indonesia" to help ease the dispute. He meets with Sukarno Friday.

The 38-year-old attorney general added, however, that the Malaysian crisis is "best decided, resolved, determined by Asian countries, not by ourselves."

Kennedy met Sukarno in 1962 on a Far Eastern tour for his brother. Although Sukarno has been openly critical of the United States, he is said to respect Kennedy's honesty and ability.

Kennedy's personal efforts in the Malaysian dispute will take him around the world to meet with all the principals. Monday, he flies to Manila to confer with President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines. He is also expected to talk with Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman in Kuala Lumpur and British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home in London.

Under British sponsorship, the British territories of Malaya, Singapore, Sabah (British North Borneo) and Sarawak formed the Federation of Malaysia last September. From the start, it was opposed by the Philippines, which claims Sabah, and Indonesia, which occupies the rest of Borneo.

Sukarno, by far the more militant opponent, vowed to crush Malaysia, calling it an instrument of British neo imperialism. Philippine opposition to Malaysia has been milder.

Old Election Posters Dated Back To 1930s

STOW, Ohio — After a recent election, Fred Daugherty of Stow's Rotary Club and Bob Beckley of Stow Kiwanis spent a day touring the community to remove old election posters. They took down enough to half-fill a truck, including some dating back to the 1930s.

Hoffa Union And Truckers Reach Accord

CHICAGO (AP) — James R. Hoffa's International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the nation's truckers reached agreement on an unprecedented master contract early today affecting more than 400,000 workers, averting a strike for last midnight.

Hoffa said the contract, which he described as the first national labor agreement reached without a major strike, would bring more than 400,000 teamster members and 400 locals into one single bargaining unit.

"This is one of the finest contracts ever negotiated in the United States," Hoffa said at an early morning news conference. "Everything is fine," he said of negotiations with the Trucking Employees, Inc. "All you have to be is patient."

The three-year contract, which expires March 31, 1967, provides for a 28-cent pay increase spread over the contract period. Truckers' salaries will increase 10 cents the first year, 8 cents the second year and 10 cents the third year.

The average industrywide pay for Teamsters' truckers now is about $3.17 per hour.

Air Pollution In General

While attention is going to smoking as the likeliest culprit in an alarming rate of lung cancer, emphysema, asthma, chronic bronchitis and respiratory infection in general, it is worth noting that a Senate Public Works subcommittee is looking into another possibility.

It will hold public hearings this winter on air pollution in six urban areas. The singular fact is that air pollution has been shown to have the same bad effect on human health as excessive smoking, which in itself is air "pollution."

There is another singular fact about air pollution — that more Americans are crowded together in urban areas than ever before. It is estimated that 53 per cent of the nation's population now lives in only one per cent of the nation's land area.

Two-thirds of all Americans today live in 212 urban areas that comprise less than 10 per cent of America's land area. Most of them are exposed to significant degrees of air pollution — enough to suggest the possibility that air pollution in general, combined with the "pollution" caused by the use of tobacco, is to blame for the entire range of respiratory trouble.

Eventually, studies will show whether a relationship exists between place of residence and respiratory trouble. Studies will show if residents of urban areas who smoke show more ill effects from the habit than residents of rural areas.

In the meantime, increasing efforts will be made and should be made to reduce air pollution of all kinds. Everything that human beings breathe into their lungs is under suspicion, including tobacco smoke, industrial dusts, fumes from motor vehicles, gases formed by combustion of coal, gas and oil, metallurgical dust — everything that pollutes the air.

Ohio Is A Sure Thing

The Ohio Department of Development's new economic regions map, which carves the state into eight industrial districts, carries this message for all prospective industries, tourists and residents: Ohio has something for everyone.

The message isn't any news to native Ohioans. They've known all along that their state already is so diversified in terms of topography, resources and population that it can be a perfect home for almost anyone willing to look it over.

Ohioans know, for instance, that they live in a state that contains some of the nation's largest industrial centers yet offers an unusual abundance of scenic wonders. An energetic roadbuilding program has brought Ohio's wilderness areas and recreation spots to the doorsteps of its urban centers.

Development Director George Wilson is endeavoring to lure some of Gov. Rhodes' promised 200,000 new jobs into Ohio by showing that every section of the state has superb qualifications for meeting the special demands of industry.

By carving the state into sections for this purpose, he is making what appears to be a specialization pitch. But as he and anyone else who lives in Ohio knows, the biggest selling point in Ohio is Ohio itself.

Granted, certain sections of the state are eminently well-suited for certain types of industries and people who possess special skills. The fact these areas are part of a state that has gained the right to its mighty river's title, "Beautiful Ohio," makes them double appealing.

We wish Mr. Wilson success in his efforts to sell Ohio.

Being Ohioans, we don't see how he can miss.

Firing Both Barrels

Sen. Goldwater, it should be noted, knew he would "catch hell" for raising doubts about this country's intercontinental ballistic missiles.

He did. And he will continue to catch it. Perhaps he deserves to catch it. We don't know. Nobody knows.

Even Secretary of Defense McNamara, who blistered the senator for expressing his doubts, doesn't know how dependable the long-range missiles are. Nor do the Joint Chiefs of Staff know how dependable they are.

Out of the dozens and hundreds of missiles that have been fired, to test the dependability of this new weapon, not more than one is known to have been tested with a nuclear warhead.

HOW CAN ANYONE know anything for certain about the dependability of a weapon so cataclysmically destructive an experiment might wipe out hundreds of thousands of lives and obliterate whole sections of the earth? How could such a weapon be tested?

All that Sen. Goldwater, an Air Force major general, did was to voice the standard Air Force feeling about over-reliance

Breakthrough

Every so often, we have a breakthrough.

There was one in Philadelphia, when a judge ordered an outfit to ditch its plan to use blackface characters in a parade.

Negroes in Philadelphia had grown sensitive about blackface makeup and were in a frame of mind that could have triggered violence. The judge wanted to avert trouble.

The decision sparked off another round in an ill-tempered and aimless discussion of whether or not Negroes are over-sensitive about things like blackface makeup. Who can say?

Suppose we leave the Negroes out of it and go directly to the principle in the judge's ruling — that it's improper to pretend to be something you aren't.

Oh boy!

THIS LOOKS like the way to get rid of bushy-haired ginks who pretend to be singers and affront the eardrums of an innocent public with sounds that can be likened only to the agony of a cat with its tail caught in a pulley.

It could solve the problem of how to eliminate imposters imitating auto mechanics, carpenters, teachers, dentists, ministers and politicians.

We could do something about diplomats who are not diplomatic and teachers who are not scholars.

It would be a way to get rid of men who behave like women and women who act like men; we could get an injunction. We could go to a judge and get quick action against progenitors who pretend to be parents but have no right to the title.

The courts could protect us from fraud and deceit in all forms — propaganda fobbed off as entertainment, professional athletes pretending to be college boys, self-proclaimed "honest" public servants who are crooks.

We could pull the string on hypocrisy in all its forms.

We could pull the shade on frauds carried on too long, like the one about scaring the American people half to death about highway fatalities when their safety margin keeps getting wider all the time.

WE MIGHT even get rid of Injudicious

Ruling On Coercion Raises Questions

By DAVID LAWRENCE

All presidential candidates and those who seek election or reelection to Congress had better watch out. The Supreme Court of the United States, by unanimous decision, now has ruled that to make any promises of financial benefits to the prospective voters could be construed as a form of "coercion."

The highest court, in a case just handed down, was dealing with an election in a plant where the workers were trying to decide whether to designate a labor union as their bargaining representative. The employer in the weeks preceding the election conferred certain benefits unconditionally and stated that they were of a permanent nature. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals had ruled that this was a proper procedure but the Supreme Court of the United States held otherwise.

This means that, no matter what the employer says during a pending election, his words can be construed as an interference with the right of the workers to vote as they please. This sweeping decision takes away from the employer any right he might previously have thought he had to express himself freely under the First Amendment of the Constitution and to tell his employees frankly why he believed they would be better off without a union.

IN THIS particular case, the employer wrote a letter to employees in March 1959, just before the election was to be held, giving a detailed statement of the benefits granted by the company since 1949 and an estimate of the monetary value of such benefits to the employees. These included for 1960 a birthday holiday and additional overtime and vacation benefits which, the employer said, had their basis in a policy established earlier but had not been previously announced.

The National Labor Relations Act forbids an employer "to interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees" in the exercise of their right to choose by their votes a union to act as bargaining agent. The Supreme Court in this case said that the Court of Appeals "was mistaken in concluding that the conferral of employee benefits while a representation election is pending, for the purpose of inducing employees to vote against the union, does not 'interfere with the protected right to organize.'"

The Supreme Court took the position that "the beneficence of an employer is likely to be ephemeral if prompted by a threat of unionization which is subsequently removed."

The court declared, moreover, that it was not "of controlling significance" that there was an "absence of conditions or threats pertaining to the particular benefits conferred."

THE COURT added that this would be important "only if it could be presumed that no question of additional benefits or renegotiation of existing benefits would arise in the future; and, of course, no such presumption is tenable."

The Supreme Court concluded that the "danger inherent in well-timed increases in benefits is the suggestion of a fist inside the velvet glove," and that "employees are not likely to miss the inference that the source of benefits now conferred is also the source from which future benefits must flow and which may dry up if it is not obligated."

Now that the Supreme Court has ruled that the promise to confer benefits is not only an attempt to influence the result of an election but is a form of "coercion," it will be interesting to note what the effect will be on political campaigns in the future.

The Federal Corrupt Practices Act governing elections for the presidency and for Congress specifically defines "coercion by means of relief appropriations." It says:

"Whoever uses any part of any appropriation made by Congress for work relief, relief, or for increasing employment by providing loans and grants for public-works projects, or exercises or administers any authority conferred by any appropriation act for the purpose of interfering with, restraining, or coercing any individual in the exercise of his right to vote at any election, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both."

AGAIN AND AGAIN, candidates for public office have promised that they could "do more for" a given state or district than some other candidate. During the incumbency of many administrations, bills have been passed bestowing direct benefits on constituents in certain areas, and a political flavor has often surrounded the passage of such laws.

Scarcely a year goes by that legislation isn't proposed or enacted which confers a financial benefit on the voters of a particular state or community.

Members of Congress can, of course, champion the enactment of statutes that are beneficial only to particular groups of voters. But the new Supreme Court decision can be cited to argue that to mention the passage of such beneficial legislation in relation to a political campaign in a state or district now is a form of "coercion."

Canadian Deals Worry Textile Workers

By VICTOR RIESEL

Few realize it, but tens of thousands of U.S. citizens may lose their daily bread and find it tough to get new jobs because Canada is selling wheat to Communist China.

Those in the know, especially in New England and in our Southland, are worried by secret deals the Ottawa government made with Peking. The Chinese Communists are tough, shrewd bargainers. When they agreed to buy wheat north of the border, they demanded that they be permitted to sell Communist goods in Canada.

The Canadian government agreed to open its ports. In came a flood of Peking's goods—especially textiles. Out of jobs went 1,000 textile workers whose employers were hit hard by the unbelievably low cost of materials from Mao's mainland. Hundred of additional Canadian textile and clothing workers are continuing to lose their jobs regularly because of this competition.

The Chinese Communists can undercut the world on prices. There is just no wage system as we know it, in the "People's Republic of China." When I was in Hong Kong 18 months ago, for example, I learned of a proposed Export Commodities Fair which Peking planned to hold in Canton. Prices on the schedules meant nothing when the fair opened last May.

IN THE CHINESE Communist department store in Hong Kong for example, you can get Red goods for an even lower price than in the cut-rate stores on the colony's Nathan Road.

Following a similar price policy in Canada, the Peking exports port trusts will be permitted to undersell the textile and clothing manufacturers there. True, it's just the beginning. But it is a substantial beginning. In 1962, the Canadians permitted the mainland to sell them about $1.3 million worth of goods. Last year this quota was raised to some $7 million. Soon the Peking government will be able to sell as much as the Japanese do in the Dominion. That would bring the figure up to $14 or $15 million.

And the figures will soar far higher. There is evidence of ever - skyrocketing Communist sales. The Canadian quota on Chinese (Peking) handkerchiefs, for example, was 3,200 dozen in 1962.

After the wheat deal the new quota was fixed at 450,000 dozen. The old quota of cotton shirts from the Chinese mainland used to be 18,000 dozen. After the deal, the ceiling was 200,000 dozen.

THIS TREND applies to trousers and undergarments in the textile field as well as to such items as sewing machines, plywood, hair brushes and silks.

The Communists overlooked nothing. The Canadian Ministry of Trade told some textile people that the original agreement would call for the wheat to be shipped in Canadian bags. After the deal became public, this clause was eliminated. Now the Chinese are supplying the bags.

Spokesmen for the Primary Textile Institute of Canada have charged that their industry has been made "the goat," and that their business is being chopped away.

Word from the Textile Workers Union Canadian Director J. Harold Daoust is that textiles will be "one of the principal exports which China will send to Canada to help pay for wheat."

Since even the meager imports reported here have cost the textile workers some 1,500 jobs and the manufacturers considerable profit, labor and industry leaders are disturbed. This has hit the industry hard as it is already a small field employing only 76,000 people.

How can all this affect the United States?

TEXTILE EXPERTS point out that the Canadian industry is too small to satisfy more than 60 per cent of the country's needs. So Canada has been one of the world's biggest "net" importers of textiles and clothing. Almost half of these imports are from the U.S. Our textile field already is hard hit. Not too long ago it employed 1 1/4 million persons. Now the payrolls are down to 875,000 in the basic textile industry.

The U.S. ladies' and men's garment field is not as flourishing as it once was. These businesses depend considerably on exports to Canada to offset competition from Taiwan, Hong Kong, Japan and the Philippines.

If the Chinese Communists, with their communal production system and subsistence wage levels, which frequently operate without even a currency exchange, bump us out of the Canadian market our textile centers will be affected. There apparently is nothing the U.S. can do. Canada is a sensitive, sovereign—and now antagonistic—nation. It can sell wheat to Communist China just as Britain can sell buses to Cuba.

But those in our own State Department who are itching to open trade with Peking, should now know that an open port is a two way street, if I can mix my metaphors.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Recently, The Review published a letter condemning a man who wrote one criticizing President Kennedy's actions and our government.

Before President Kennedy's death many people had plenty to say against him. There were those "First Family Records" besides people's personal views about many actions of both President and Mrs. Kennedy. It is a rare couple who would have so much against them and keep their temper and their smile intact. President Kennedy realized at the election that he just made it and almost as many people were against him as were for him according to number of votes.

So many things have been written since his death praising him to extreme — because he was not perfect. We all make mistakes, and many would have made much worse ones if they had been in his place. We are just as wrong to knock ourselves out trying to find so many nice things to say.

Anyone who thinks there isn't anything wrong in our land and in our government — them I cannot understand!

Food, grain wasted, land growing up in briars, farmers being paid for land to not be farmed — while some people are starving and others are so crowded up together wondering why.

Raw materials can be shipped overseas, manufactured, sent back a finished product, and sold to us cheaper than if it were kept and made right here.

We have higher learning, bigger buildings, church enrollment soaring, new medical discoveries and insurances. But we also have unemployment. Divorce rates and crime rates have gone up.

President Johnson ask us to pray for him. In his speeches he emphasizes what "we" can do and what "we" must do. So people use sex as others use alcohol or narcotics.

Jefferson Davis, when elected president of the American Confederate States, was unopposed for the office — although two other men had been previously considered for the post. One of these, Howell Cobb of Georgia, had resigned as secretary of the treasury in 1860 to urge secession. The other was Robert Toombs, a Georgia congressman.

Teen-age girls who indulge promiscuously in sexual relations do so for a number of reasons. Some girls foolishly believe it is the key to popularity. They fear if they refuse to give the boys what they ask for, the boys will not invite them out again and will turn to someone who is more accommodating.

And then, of course, there is the pitiful little mouse who has no confidence in her ability to hold a boy's interest. She believes the only way she can show a fellow a good time is to allow him to take liberties with her.

Can't Escape Guilt
These girls don't escape the guilt, even though they attempt to justify their out-of-bounds behavior to themselves and sometimes to others. They verbalize the notion, "It's perfectly all right," but the carefree facade is only a pose.

These girls know (and suffer from the knowledge) that society does not approve of their behavior and that they are living outside the bounds of convention.

Call it "narrow-minded," "mid-Victorian," "Puritanical" or whatever may come to mind, but sex outside of marriage is unacceptable in our society. This conflict can play havoc with the nervous system — and often does.

NOW LET'S get down to cases. What is wrong with going all the way?

Aside from the moral issues (which too many teen-agers long since have discarded as being out of date), the best reason is this: It isn't worth the risks!

Sex outside of marriage is a bad bargain when you measure what you stand to gain against what you stand to lose.

What are the gains? Popularity? Nonsense! The pushovers may get a flurry of attention, but it doesn't last long. The word gets around, and soon the free and easy "makeout" has a rotten reputation.

The boys may phone her when they are in the mood for fun and frolic, but this is a far cry from popularity. Better call it availability.

WHAT IS LEFT then? The pleasure of the act itself? Exactly how much pleasure is there for illicit beginners? Do teen-agers find sex as heavenly and as exciting as they thought it would be? The answer is no. It's likely to be a disappointment.

A clinic which serves unwed mothers in a large Eastern city made an interesting study of premarital sexual relations. This question was asked of the unwed mothers: "Did you find the sex experience pleasurable, disappointing or unpleasant?"

Only 20 per cent described their sex experience as pleasurable. Fifty per cent said it was disappointing. The other 30 per cent described it as unpleasant or revolting.

Now, what can happen to teen-agers who become involved sexually? Many things. And they don't always happen to other people. Sometimes they happen to you.

The Dangers
Speaking specifically: Girls get pregnant. And in the last 20 years the percentage of unwed mothers has tripled. I don't mean number — I mean percentage.

In 1961 one out of every eight girls who married was 17 years of age or younger. An educated guess indicates that approximately 40 per cent of these girls were pregnant when they married. The divorce rate for brides under 20 is three times the average for all age groups.

Teen-agers would do well to consider ALL the possibilities. The kids who figure "if something happens we can always get married" had better understand what this means.

TOO OFTEN it can mean broken-hearted parents, a sudden end to education, and being saddled with responsibilities of manhood and womanhood at a time when you should be enjoying teen-age fun. And you can wind up hating your wife or husband.

Every now and then I get a letter from some knucklehead who tells me if I really want to befriend teen-agers, I should give them some helpful hints on how to avoid pregnancy instead of being so doggone Puritanical and unrealistic.

To you teen-agers who think you can "get away with it" if you are careful, I would like to say this:

There is no 100 per cent foolproof, sure-fire way to avoid pregnancy. Anyone who thinks so is sadly mistaken.

Teen-agers should be fully aware that every time they indulge in sexual relations they take a chance on bringing another human being into the world.

Teen-agers who are having sexual relations should ask themselves one question: "What will we do if the act should result in pregnancy?"

I am well aware that some teen-agers are not in trouble at this moment — and they never will be in trouble.

THEY ARE the level-headed and clear-eyed ones who have grown up with the knowledge that the human body has dignity and that the pleasures of the body have a higher purpose. Such teen-agers are not in danger of fouling themselves up.

No one can go along on dates with you and see that you stay in line. The best policeman of all is your own set of standards. The most dependable of all compasses are still common sense and good judgment.

We must make our own decisions — and our own choices.

Planners Defer
Decision To Hire
Consulting Firm

The City Planning Commission, meeting Wednesday night at City Hall, deferred action on a decision whether to hire the consulting firm of Carroll V. Hill Associates of Pittsburgh and Columbus to prepare a "master plan" to guide East Liverpool growth and development.

Mayor Merrill D. Hall said the commission expected to obtain further information on the firm's proposal, but the questions were left unanswered because the company did not send a representative to the meeting.

The company advised the commission at its meeting a week ago that its previous offer of $37,600 for preparation of the "master plan" may be increased to over $50,000, based on additional requirements imposed by the state.

Don Eckert, chairman, will contact the Hill concern and ask it to furnish additional information in writing or by sending a representative to a commission meeting, the mayor said.

In addition to the mayor and Eckert, members of the commission who attended were Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, E. L. Wheatley and George Steele. City Engineer George S. Bloomgren also was present.

When you get fuel line freeze-up, you are stuck! Your car will not run! Chances are you have to call for a tow! This can mean a long wait for the tow truck to arrive . . . and a big bill to pay!

Don't get hooked by fuel line freeze-up this winter! Use Boron with its special Ice-gard ingredient! The amount of this Ice-gard

JUST THIS MUCH ICE CAN STOP YOU COLD! In freezing weather, water condensed from the air in your gas tank can settle in a low point of your fuel line and freeze solid. ingredient that Sohio puts in Boron is so effective that you are protected against fuel line freeze-up no matter how cold it gets in Ohio. In the past, you may have bought fuel line anti-icers and added them to your gasoline to prevent a frozen fuel line. Or maybe you've gone to the big inconvenience of trying to keep your gas tank full all the time. Both these precautions are completely unnecessary when you use Boron with Ice-gard regularly! Boron with Ice-gard protects you automatically against fuel line freeze-up!

Mush After Breakfast

"Champion Loki Easter of Baltic" gives his victory grin at the end of a contest.

Incongruous perhaps, but true. It's an Eskimo dog race under warm, sunny skies in a huge parking lot in Littleton, Colo.

The women of the racing club hitch up Huskies before the start of contest. At left is Mrs. Marion Burns, who conceived idea of substituting go-carts for sleds.

EVERYBODY talks about woman's intuition, but equally important, we've discovered, is her ingenuity. Take, for example, the women who belong to the Rocky Mountain Siberian Husky Club in Littleton, Colo. That impressive title might lead you to believe that its members were Asians concerned with either weight-lifting or weight reduction. The truth of the matter is that the women, when they've cleared away the breakfast dishes, pursue a hobby right out of the pages of a Jack London novel. They race Eskimo Huskies. Loath to give up their dog sled contests when snows melt, they have devised a unique means to keep their charges in condition for winter races—by substituting motorless go-carts for sleds, to race the year round. When the cry "Mush!" rings out in a Littleton parking lot, ladies and Huskies really go, go, GO!

Shades of Johann Strauss. As they frolic between races, these Huskies look like a couple of waltzers.

Seated in a go-cart which substitutes for sled, Mrs. Ann Schaefer shouts traditional "Mush!" as she takes off. Handler is Mrs. Cleo Wren.

Part Of Airplane Crashes Into Home

CLEVELAND (AP) — "There was this loud crash, and suddenly this thing split through the ceiling and hit a dresser.

That's how John Malinkey, 35, described what it was like when part of an airplane landing gear crashed through the roof of his home in suburban Brooklyn Wednesday night and narrowly missed him as he stood in his bedroom.

The missile was a foot-long steel spring two inches in diameter. Ivan P. Hillyard, supervising inspector here for the Federal Aviation Agency, said the coil fell from a United Airlines plane about to land.

Mrs. Ruff gave the directors' report for the year.

Zanzibar Won't Be Cuba-Styled, Official Claims

ZANZIBAR (AP) — Foreign Minister Abdul Rohman Mohammed Babu said today that Zanzibar's new government will be Socialist but will not necessarily follow the Cuban pattern.

In a roadside interview Babu said the island "quite possibly" will remain within the British commonwealth.

Babu, who has been known for Communist sympathies, was accompanied by four armed lieutenants. One said he had been trained in Cuba along with "many" Zanzibaris.

Several other Zanzibari rebels are believed to have been trained in Peking and a correspondent of Communist China's New China news agency (NCNA) arrived here Jan. 10, two days before the revolution.

(In London, Western and African diplomats speculated that Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai, now on a tour of Africa, might visit Zanzibar to display Peking's support for the revolutionaries.)

Motorist Admits Abandoning Car, Gets $25 Penalty

A man whose auto was demolished by a freight train early Monday morning at the Walnut St. crossing was fined $25 and costs today in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty to a charge of abandoning a motor vehicle on a public roadway.

Bruce V. Adkins of Thompson Pt. was cited by Patrolman Paul E. Carter after the mishap at 1:25 a. m. Monday. At the time of the crash, he told police the car stalled and he left for a service station to get help.

Officer Carter told the court today he was at the service station at the time and Adkins asked the proprietor for a can of gasoline, but made no mention of his car being stalled on the tracks.

Meanwhile, John L. Bird of Clark St. was fined $25 and costs, with the fine suspended on payment of the costs, on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance filed after a traffic mishap Dec. 28 on Pennsylvania Ave.

Bird had pleaded guilty Dec. 30 and his case had been continued for sentencing. He told Judge Samuel M. Chertoff he has made arrangements to pay for damage to the other car involved in the mishap.

drained in some manner into the reservoir. This may present a problem.

Pumping operations from a strip pit were halted Monday because of bad weather but probably will resume in a day or two.

Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare said this morning he is not too concerned that the reservoir will actually go dry as long as there is some water going in. This, along with what was pumped in, should hold the city until pumping can be resumed, he said.

There was an estimated nine-day supply left a week ago. Pumping and the opening of beaver dams have provided some water. The amount being used shows residents are conserving water, the director pointed out.

Island Of Hills

Mohican Indians called it "Manah-hatin", "Island of Hills". But in 1664, 300 years ago, British troops raised the Union Jack over Nieuw Amsterdam and called it New York.

The new name honored the Duke of York who, incidentally, never set foot on his island estate.

The New York World's Fair of 1964 marks the 300th anniversary of the use of the city's name.

Dutch fur traders lived on Manhattan Island as early as 1613, the National Geographic Society says. A visiting British sea captain found "four rude houses and a pretended Dutch governor who kept trading boats and was trucking with the Indians."

Peter Minuit bought Manhattan in 1626 for the Dutch West India Company. Some historians say Minuit, not the Indians, was hoodwinked when he doled out $24 worth of beads and blankets to Canarsies Indians from Long Island — for they had no property rights on Manhattan. The rightful owners, the Manhattoes, later returned from a hunting trip, and the irate Minuit had to buy the island all over again with another $24.

Minuit and his company of 200 Hollanders built some 30 bark-covered houses on the lower tip of Manhattan. The settlers ate garden-grown beans and peas, picked wild fruit, and caught huge sturgeon in the Hudson River. Their most dreaded enemies: marauding wolves and bears.

The first American college was Harvard, established in 1636.

Highland Board Meets Again On School Situation

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP) — The Highland County Board of Education meets again tonight in an effort to solve the confused local school situation.

The board is expected to act on a request to rescind its decision of Jan. 6 and return to an earlier ruling consolidating three nearby districts into the Highland Local School District.

This would result in a high school center serving an area of 300 square miles and more than 600 students. The three districts now operate five high schools.

It would also leave unsolved the matter of $685,000 bond issue for a new school complex that was approved last November by voters in the Lynchburg-Clay District.

Kept Self Attending

CUYAHOGA FALLS, Ohio (AP) — Before Menzo Preston joined the Cuyahoga Falls police force, he was a truant officer. Apparently that gave him some ideas about attendance. He's chief now, is retiring after 26 years on the force, and notes that he never has missed a day of work.

Note To Khrushchev

Johnson Agrees To Plan On Border Disputes

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

KHRUSHCHEV: President Johnson has drafted a proposed message to Soviet Premier Khrushchev telling him the United States agrees that border disputes between nations should be settled peacefully.

But in the note, a reply to Khrushchev's recent proposal for a worldwide nonaggression pact, Johnson intends to point out to the Soviet leader that the United Nations is a peace-keeping organization although it needs strengthening.

The President's proposed reply, described by officials as a four-page message, was dispatched Wednesday to Allied governments for their comments. Depending on Allied reactions, the message may be substantially changed before it is sent to Moscow next week.

TAX FACTS: The number of tax returns showing incomes of over $10,000 increased 18 per cent last year to more than 7 million.

But more than half the returns filed—including those of both single persons and families—showed incomes of below $5,000. This category decreased 1.9 per cent.

These figures were in an Internal Revenue Service statistical report issued Wednesday.

POSTMARK: Beginning Feb. 1, postmarks will no longer tell the time of day that mail was canceled. In its place will go a simple "a.m." or "p.m." designation.

GRAIN SALES: The Commerce Department authorized Wednesday the first sale of American rice to Russia—$7.45 million worth—since the United States gave approval to commodity sales to Iron Curtain countries.

After the license was granted, Continental Grain Co. announced in New York it had sold 50,000 metric tons of rice to the Soviet Union at the world market price.

DISCRIMINATION: The U.S. Housing Administration has reached agreement with Minnesota on a pact designed to provide federal sanctions for violations of the state's fair housing law.

This would permit the federal government to act in many cases where it now is powerless under the limited provisions of a presidential executive order against racial discrimination in housing.

TUNED OUT: The Federal Communications Commission voted down Wednesday its own proposal to set fixed limits on the number and frequency of radio and television commercials.

The unanimous decision of the seven-man commission came after strong objections to the proposed limits from a House Communications subcommittee and from the broadcasting industry.

Proposed Atom Smasher Gets Support Of Lausche

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, has joined 16 other senators and many House members from Midwest and Great Lakes states in supporting a proposed atom smasher near the University of Wisconsin.

Nevertheless, Wisconsin congressional members have little hope that funds to initiate the proposed $150 million high intensity accelerator will be included in President Johnson's budget recommendations.

But they feel that later in the year the White House may get behind the effort to build the huge atom smasher.

The accelerator was proposed by Midwestern Universities Research Association (MURA) which includes scientists from Big Ten and other Midwest universities.

Johnson met Dec. 20 with several midwest congressmen but gave little backing to their request that he include funds in the budget for a start on the accelerator.

Lausche, in a letter to Johnson, said scientists, researchers and executives of the Midwest universities are convinced that the accelerator offers a chance of a major scientific step forward.

"I can only say," Lausche wrote, "that if the Midwest is bypassed in favor of the East or West coasts in the establishment of this major scientific installation it will be a calamitous blow to the productive capacity of our Midwestern universities."

GAO Cites Savings At Dayton Air Depot

WASHINGTON (AP)—A saving by the Air Force Depot at Dayton, Ohio, has been cited by the General Accounting Office as a way the Air Force could have avoided wasting $18.7 million between 1959 and 1961.

In 1960, the GAO said, the Dayton Supply Depot bought 21,000 electron tubes direct from the manufacturers at $1.49 each. A month later, the congressional agency said Wednesday in a report to Congress, the Warner Robins Air Material Area in Georgia bought 2,200 of the same tubes at $25.53 each.

At the $1.49 price, the GAO said, the Warner Robins AMA would have saved $53,000.

Cost Of Plane Hunt Set At $1.5 Million

Grand Jury Report On Fire

Strict Regulations Urged To Cover Nursing Homes

NORWALK, Ohio (AP) — A grand jury report on the fire that killed 63 persons at the Golden Age Nursing Home near Fitchville calls present state fire inspections valueless and recommends legislation to tighten regulations covering nursing homes.

The report issued Wednesday night found no violation of Ohio criminal laws and concurred in a report by State Fire Marshal Fred Rice setting the probable cause as poor quality wiring.

"There is actually no regular legal requirement for inspection of these homes by the State Fire Marshal's Office or the Division of Buildings," the report stated.

"We find that these inspections are valueless. Apparently these so-called inspections are perfunctory, and there are no qualifications set up for those performing these inspection jobs. We might point out that no inspection of work fully completed and concealed can reveal anything."

"We feel, since the 1959 session of the legislature saw fit to place jurisdiction of rest and nursing homes under the State Health Department, that this department should be fully responsible, having its own staff of fire inspectors and building inspectors and that these individuals should pass written examinations and be placed under civil service."

The great loss of life in the Nov. 23 fire was blamed on lack of a sound evacuation plan.

The Huron County grand jury recommended legislation with six minimum-standard requirements:

1. All new buildings should be fireproof and all wiring should meet the standards of the National Electric Board.
2. The ratio of employees to patient load for each shift should be regulated.
3. Written reports of all inspections should be sworn to by the inspectors under oath.
4. Each nursing and rest home should be required to furnish copies of its evacuation plan

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Should Make Up Missed Homework

When your child misses one or many days of school, he may fall far behind in his classwork. If illness has been the cause of absence, this child hardly will be able to do his lessons while ill at home. In case he has missed several days, he may not be physically able to make Dr. Garry Meyers up the work easily after his return to school. Yet for a child to progress at school, he may need to make up the lessons he has missed. Guiding him to do this work at home and school requires considerable skill.

His physical vigor may be reduced. To press him after an illness to do more school work than usual may prove harmful; yet for him to fail to make up the work he missed may render his present lessons much harder to master.

text — to escape a dreaded test, for example — since they don't have to worry about what they missed. They even may become school laggards.

Suppose, instead, they knew they had to make up this test. Of course, the teacher who conscientiously checks on the child who because of absence has missed certain regular school work, takes on added responsibility and the constant checking by her may be rather unpleasant work.

PARENTS WHO wish to be considerate of the teacher should keep in mind that every time their child is late or absent, his teacher is burdened with more work; that her efficiency is thereby impaired.

These parents should not readily let their child take a day off just for fun, or go with them on an extended vacation during the school term, without first conferring with the school and providing a program for having the child do the school work he will have missed.

HIS PARENTS and teachers need to consider the nature of the work he missed — what parts are most necessary for him to master so he can go on. As they help him concentrate on learning the vital lessons, they can let him catch up on some of the other less important matters later.

But many teachers and parents don't seem to be concerned enough about the fact that a child missed several lessons by his absence from school. As a result, some students find ways of missing a day or more of school on a slight or false pre-

A few parents whose children are above average in school achievement may resent the school's insistence on such provisions. However, they should realize that, even if such measures are not necessary for their own children, they are desirable for most children and important to maintain school discipline.

My bulletin, "Parents Can Help Child Succeed at School", may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Grand Jury Probe Sought In Vote Irregularity Charge

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown says he will seek grand jury action on charges of voting irregularities in Decatur and Washington townships in Lawrence County.

Brown conducted a second hearing into the charges here Wednesday. He said testimony of alleged vote buying and misuse of absentee ballots in the county will be sent to the state attorney general and the county prosecutor in an effort to initiate grand jury action.

More than two dozen persons appeared before Brown and his staff during the hearing. The secretary's record showed that of 600 ballots cast from the two townships, some 200 were absentee votes.

Brown said the first hearing Dec. 3 was to check into the matter of the disproportionate number of absentee ballots. At the time, however, witnesses told of incidents of vote buying and offers of money for the "right vote."

Voting regulations permit absentee ballots to be cast in cases when the voter will be out of the county or more than 10 miles from his polling place on election day or in cases of disability.

Only about a half dozen of some 20 persons who testified that they applied for absentee ballots because they were planning to be out of the county on Election Day said they actually were out of the county Nov. 5. They said they had cast their ballots anywhere from a week to a month before election day but that disabled automobiles and various illnesses kept them in the county.

All the witnesses summoned Wednesday also voted absentee in the 1962 election. A few never had voted any other way.

City Lawyer Gets Court Reprimand

Atty. George A. Aronson of East Liverpool has received a public reprimand from the Ohio Supreme Court on a complaint by the Columbiana County Bar Association.

The court's investigating body charged him with misconduct in handling of counter-insurance claims. The complaint was made in September.

The action Wednesday at Columbus stemmed from Aronson's handling of damage suits resulting from an accident July 2, 1959, in which Hugh Smith and Sylvia Merriman — brother and sister — were involved.

Records showed that after recovering $500 for the brother under his sister's policy, Aronson brought suit against the brother for $25,000 damages. Smith and his sister were insured under separate policies.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Sweets Renew Your Appetite

One jubilant reducer wrote that she had lost 25 excess pounds by the simple practice of leaving off rich desserts. She wrote: "To my amazement, I found that by skipping rich desserts, dieting was easy, for I no longer felt hungry between meals. I know now that if Ida Jean Kain you don't feed a 'sweet tooth' you lose your craving for pastries and the like. This is something you have to experience to believe," she remarked.

A SWEET TASTE has a way of running to excess. This dieter was hit upon the most effective way of dealing with avoirdupois. Sweets, coming as they do at the end of the meal, so often put the calories over the top of your requirements. But if you cut down on the main course in order to save calories for dessert, you are apt to slight the essential nutrients. This practice leads to malnutrition. You can't win that way.

An understanding of the body's physical reaction to sweets will show why such carbohydrate calories renew appetite and create the craving for more sweets.

Sweets furnish quickly absorbable sugar which forces the blood sugar level high and in turn stimulates the secretion of insulin. Sugar burns quickly, so the blood sugar level falls rapidly and you feel hungry again. When the blood sugar falls, the body's need for sugar is expressed in hunger pangs. Any food will quell hunger, but if your preference is for something sweet, and that is what you eat, then the cycle is repeated. There you are, you can never conquer your sweet tooth by continuing to overeat on sweets.

This doesn't happen to everyone. But if you crave sweets you may reasonably suspect that you are overstimulating the pancreas to secrete insulin. The surplus insulin lowers the concentration of sugar in the blood and creates an artificial hunger. This is happening because you are eating too many sweets.

TALK WITH YOUR doctor about it. If he suggests a diet, it will be one that features foods which burn more slowly. The diet will be high in protein, for protein provides energy at an even rate. It takes the body several hours to convert half its protein into sugar, and in the meantime you do not feel hungry. You avoid the rebound that follows the eating of sweets.

Try this plan. Eat three moderate meals a day, with a protein food at each meal. Leave off desserts. At 4:00 in the afternoon have an energy pick-up—a glass of buttermilk, a cube of cheese, or fruit and a small piece of cheese. You will lose weight, and you will avoid the post-dessert swing to renewed hunger. At the end of three weeks you will no longer crave sweets! Are you game to try it?

Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Not Demanding Big Settlement, Fisher Declares

NEW YORK (AP)—Singer Eddie Fisher denies he is holding up the divorce sought by his wife, actress Elizabeth Taylor, by demanding a large financial settlement.

The singer, appearing in Las Vegas, issued this statement Wednesday night through his New York attorney, Louis Nizer:

"Any story that I have asked for a cent of Elizabeth's property is no more true than that she has asked for mine. It is as false as her charge that I 'abandoned' her.

"I do not wish to remain married to her financially any more than any other way." Miss Taylor filed for divorce earlier this week in Mexico, charging Fisher abandoned her. She is seeking her freedom to marry actor Richard Burton, her constant companion for months.

Cites Handouts In Relief

Goldwater Raps Johnson
'Santa Claus' Promises

By WALTER R. MEARS
NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, calling for an attack on what he termed "the Santa Claus" of the "government handout," has urged that able-bodied men on relief be put to work for their welfare check.

The Arizona Republican accused President Johnson of making "Santa Claus promises" in his State of the Union message.

Johnson's program adds up to saying "that the bureaucracy in Washington can solve all our problems, end poverty and create prosperity," Goldwater said.

Carrying his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination into the home town of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, his only announced rival, Goldwater charged Wednesday night the Democratic party has "reduced rewards for good work and also reduced the penalties for laziness or waste."

He told the Economic Club of New York that the government should investigate "whether the attitude or the action of the small group not participating in the general prosperity has anything to do with the situation."

In his State of the Union message Johnson outlined proposals that would cost about one billion dollars over the next few years to combat poverty.

Johnson also proposed a $97.9 billion federal budget, saying it would cut expenditures $500 million below those of this fiscal year.

Goldwater called that "a fast shuffle of figures" and said Johnson actually wants $2 billion more than Congress authorized for this year.

Goldwater said that to deal with the problem of poverty: "I would, if I were in a position to do so, call a conference with participation from all of the states to study this problem of poverty and jobs, to pin down the figures, to survey all the solutions and not seek to impose the federal one."

Rockefeller
Hurls Attack
At Goldwater

KEENE, N. H. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York pictured Sen. Barry Goldwater today as out of step with Republican thinking on federal support for higher education.

The governor, contesting with Goldwater in the New Hampshire presidential preference primary, said the Arizona senator had voted in 1958 and 1963 against major programs for helping colleges and universities.

"The Republican party's success in the forthcoming presidential election will importantly depend upon the affirmative leadership its nominee gives for soundly conceived federal education measures," Rockefeller said.

He noted that most Republicans in Congress had voted for both programs — the National Defense Education Act of 1958 and the Higher Education Facilities act of 1963.

Rockefeller's comments were in a speech prepared for delivery at Keene State College, one of eight stops on a 12-hour campaign swing in pursuit of the Republican nomination for president.

The governor described his Keene speech as "the first of a series of talks analyzing our — Senator Goldwater's and mine — respective positions on vital matters that concern the future opportunities of you in New Hampshire as well as the well-being and security of all Americans."

Brick Worker Hurt;
Woman Scalds Hand

A brick plant worker hurt at work and a diner employee scalded by hot water were among three area residents treated at City Hospital Wednesday.

George Plunkett, 27, of Hammondsville was treated yesterday afternoon for a fracture of the right large toe received when a brick dropped on his foot at the H. K. Porter Co. plant.

Betty Illig, 20, of 616 Owen Rd., employee of the Midway Diner, suffered first degree scalds of the right hand when hot water spilled.

James Pickens, 20, of 1925 Smithfield St. received a cut of the lower left leg when he ran against sewer pipe.

Teacher Cleared
In Paddling Case

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—John C. Buckhold, 29-year-old teacher at Clark Junior High School here, has been cleared of civil charges in the paddling of a 13-year-old boy.

A Municipal Court jury ruled in favor of Buckhold Wednesday in the civil action filed by Mrs. Frances Eancheff, mother of the boy, Terry.

She sought $1,000 in compensatory and punitive damages as a result of the paddling last April.

Dr. T. J. Fazio, witness for the plaintiff, testified the youth had black and blue marks, the longest of which was seven inches long, as a result of the paddling.

Buckhold told the jury he punished the youth for failure to produce homework and for not bringing in a written excuse.

Quantity Of Wheat
Embargoed In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John M. Stackhouse, state director of agriculture, has announced that his inspectors have embargoed a quantity of wheat which had been mixed with mercury-treated seed wheat by farmers and sold to grain elevators in northern Ohio for use as human food or animal feed.

The director stated that mercury is "a very potent poison and when consumed even in minute amounts by man or animals, may cause death."

State law prohibits the sale or offering for sale of mercury-treated wheat, or other grains for food or feed purposes, he said. He warned that action will be taken against those persons who are responsible for such acts.

Stackhouse said the investigation is continuing in an effort to track down and embargo all such unfit wheat.

3 Young Executives
Killed In Plane Crash

MEMPHIS (AP) — Three young rug industry executives were killed when a twin-engine Comanche dived into a vacant field near thickly populated suburbs south of here Wednesday.

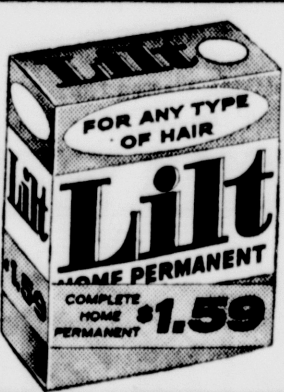

Victims were the pilot, Jerome Kraut, 36, of Northridge, a Los Angeles suburb; Robert L. Fisher, 36, of Los Angeles; and James R. Drohan, 29, of Skokie, Ill., a Chicago suburb.

Cause of the crash hasn't been determined.

000 expansion of facilities in the Steubenville - Wellsville region. Highlights of the program is the construction of two new substations, one a $170,000 distribution facility, the other, costing more than $150,000, both at Steubenville.

IN ADDITION, transmission lines in the area connecting existing substations will be converted from 23,000-volt to 69,000-volt operation. The facilities which accommodate those lines in six substations, including 3rd St. at Wellsville and South Toronto Station, will be expanded and increased in capacity.

It is scheduled to go into service during this coming summer. Major revisions of the oil circuit breaker arrangement at the 138,000-volt switchyard outside Tidd Plant at Brilliant, will continue this year. The $1-million project will be completed early in 1965, with approximately $550,000 due to be spent in 1964.

THIS MONTH, a new 138,000-volt line from the Tidd Plant to the multi-million-dollar expansion of the Wheeling Steel Corp. will go into service. Power distribution systems in four areas — Barnesville, Dillonvale, Robyville and Smyrna-Holloway (near Piedmont Reservoir) — are in the process of being revamped and converted to higher voltages.

Continuation of work on the rehabilitation of transmission lines in the division will cost $270,000 this year. That work includes installing new ground wire, reconditioning conductors, replacing insulators and hardware on tower lines, etc. Total cost of the work, scheduled for completion next year, is nearly $600,000.

by Glenn to enter politics. NASA officials also took note of reports that Glenn had considered offers to enter private industry. Among reports that Glenn planned to make the race was one by the American Broadcasting Co. in New York. Jules

Gosney Had Indicated Glenn's Political Bid

Col. John Glenn's "political capsule" was back in orbit today in state and national party circles, confirming Columbus County Chairman Don Gosney's prediction that the Marine Corps astronaut will announce for Democratic U.S. senator.

The space pilot was reported ready to reveal his political plans Friday at Columbus with indications he would seek the nomination for the senatorial post of Stephen M. Young of Cleveland, Democrat incumbent. Gosney, of Columbus, said Tuesday "we count him as a Democrat."

Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman, along with Gosney and Maurice Raport of East Liverpool are scheduled to attend the press conference.

Bergman of ABC said Glenn refused to comment to him officially "but clearly indicated" he would announce for the race in Columbus Friday.

Bergman, the ABC newsmen, said Glenn intimated to him he believes he could offer more service to the country in public life, and that his age would be against him in chances for future space flights.

Bergman also quoted Glenn as saying he had hoped to make at least one Gemini space flight but felt he would be too old to get the nod when the project is ready.

The Washington bureau of the Cleveland Plain Dealer quoted an unidentified Glenn supporter as saying the astronaut plans to make the announcement Friday. But the spokesman declined to go on record until he had some "final word" from Glenn.

Young, who is 74, already has announced that he will seek reelection, although some Ohio Democrats claim his chances for victory would be slim.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, Ohio, has been the most outspoken critic of Young's candidacy. Hays said he believes Young is too old to run again.

Other Democrats have expressed the belief, however, that if Young is nominated he would face a tough if not futile fight this fall against Rep. Robert Taft Jr., son of the late Ohio Senator and grandson of former President William H. Taft.

Taft and veteran Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, an adept vote-getter in his own right, are the only announced candidates for the Republican senatorial nomination.

New Cadet Enrolled In Civil Air Patrol

A new cadet member, Cletus Glazebrook, was accepted at a meeting of Wellsville Civil Air Patrol Wednesday night at the Daw Junior High School. Seventeen cadets and three seniors attended.

The squadron is undergoing a complete administrative reorganization to comply with orders from wing headquarters.

A letter was sent Mayor William Daugherty offering the squadron's aid in the current water shortage emergency.

Next meeting will be Wednesday at 7 p. m. agreement for resumption of relations and talks would hold up.

Pressure on Chiari was mounting as a wave of nationalistic fervor with extreme-left trimmings swept the country. From all sides—civic and professional groups, labor unions, students, some of the clergy and the man in the street—came demands for a new treaty providing for ultimate nationalization of the canal rather than the perpetual control the United States has under the 1903 treaty.

President Johnson was under opposite pressure from Congress to stand fast. The White House has said it would not yield basic American rights in the Canal Zone.

In Panama, new violence appeared to threaten, and the U.S. Army moved small units up to the Canal Zone border.

Farmer's Income Tax Guide Now Available

LISBON — Copies of the 1964 farmer's income tax guide are available from the Co-operative Extension Service office at 113 S. Market St., according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

The 64-page booklet contains explanations and examples of proper federal income tax treatment of matters normally arising in the conduct of a farming business. Included is the new rule on investment credit allowed against taxes when certain new equipment is purchased.

Deadline is Feb. 17 or April 15, according to whether an estimate had been filed previously.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: When buying a picnic ham, have the butcher cut it lengthwise (through the flat side) into two pieces . . . like cutting a hot dog bun in two. Only cut all the way through the ham so that it will make two pieces.

When the ham is cooked, the bone literally will fall out and leave the meat ready for perfect slicing.

I found this out accidentally when I rented a furnished apartment for the season and there was not a large enough kettle or roasting pan to cook a picnic ham.

The butcher said it was the first time he had ever had a request to cut a ham cross-fashion and that he would have his wife try it as it sounded wonderful to him. We all know it is hard to slice around the bone if it is left in the ham.

BETSY.

Now, aren't you a tricky one? Thanks a million.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Tell your readers to fold pairs of pillowcases together. It is much easier to pick up a pair of matched cases this way.

I also fold my sheets together. A fitted sheet and a top sheet. No mis-mated sheets when you get around to making that bed.

HESSIE

DEAR HELOISE: Before I put any shoe polish on my children's white shoes, I wipe the shoes with a damp old washcloth. This removes some of the old polish and dirt that the shoes have collected.

I then put one coat of shoe polish on the toe of the shoes where they wear the whiteness out of the leather. I let this dry thoroughly and then buff them lightly. I then apply another coat over the entire shoe. This method makes a beautiful polish job.

I always buy extra pairs of shoe laces and tie the dirty ones together and throw them in my washing machine when I have a load of diapers to be bleached.

PAT.

DEAR FOLKS: We have had many requests on how to pad an ironing board. I think our main problem is that we do not pad it enough!

Old blankets, quilts, and anything to act as a cushion make your ironing go faster. The main thing is that after you apply all of this padding to your ironing board, if you will take one, two or three sheets of foil (heavy foil is much better than the lightweight) and place it on top of the padding before you add your final top cover it will reflect the heat and your ironing will go twice as fast.

Know why?

The steam from your iron does not go into all of the padding. When the steam hits the foil, that's it.

Try some foil under the top cover of your ironing board. And while you're removing that top cover see if you don't need some more padding.

Happy Ironing.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My parakeet always shredded the paper on the bottom of her cage and made a mess no matter what kind of paper I used.

I went to a tile and floor covering store and the man gave me a scrap piece of vinyl. I cut this to fit the bottom of the cage. It works fine, is easy to remove, wash and dry and the bird cannot tear it.

Bird gravel is also nice to sprinkle on the bottom of the cage.

MRS. SOL COHEN.

DEAR HELOISE: Crocheted doilies, slightly starched, can be laid one on top of the other on your dryer and when dried they look perfect without even ironing.

MARIE KRAUSE.

To Boost Tuition

CLEVELAND (AP) — Baldwin-Wallace College announced today that tuition and room fees will be increased starting with the fall term. Tuition, now $22 per credit hour, will be raised to $25, and room fees will go up $10 per quarter.

Board To Ask Ballot Offers

The County Election Board is drafting specifications for ballots for the May 5 primaries and expects to issue a call soon for printers' bids, setting the deadline Monday, Feb. 10 at 2:30 p. m., Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said today.

O'Hanlon pointed out that Feb. 10 also will be what is known as "sufficiency day," when the Election Board convenes to determine the validity of candidates' petitions. The filing deadline for the May primaries is Feb. 5 at 4 p. m.

The board generally awards a ballot contract at the same meeting in which it passes upon the candidates' petitions.

O'Hanlon said some special issues may be filed for a vote in May, although most questions such as levies and bond issues are presented at the general election in November.

But inquiries have been received from at least two boards of education indicating they are contemplating submission of special issues, he said.

Meanwhile, some of the petitions which Rep. Wayne L. Hays, Democrat, filed with the board Jan. 6 in his bid for a new term as 18th District congressman have been forwarded to election boards in the four other counties of the district for checking of the signatures, O'Hanlon said.

In addition to Columbiana, the district is comprised of Jefferson, Harrison, Belmont and Carroll Counties. Boards in each county will check the voters' signatures affixed in their jurisdiction.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our 14-year-old son is driving me crazy. In this state he can get a learner's permit at 15, but he won't be 15 until May.

For the last three months he has spent every extra minute in the car — starting, stopping, backing up and going a few feet forward—in the driveway. My husband said the boy used half a tank of gas over the weekend and he didn't go any place.

The 14-year-old is highly competitive with his brother who is 16. The 16-year-old is car crazy, too, and it's probable that he'll get a car from his grandmother for his 17th birthday.

He insists the girls will not look at a boy unless he has a car. Furthermore, he has sold his younger brother on the idea that a car is the key to success. In the meantime, their grades are just fair. Please tell us what to do.—BOXED IN.

Dear Boxed: The first thing you can do is put the kibosh on Granny's gift. A 17-year-old who is doing just fair in school should not have a car.

Next you can ask yourself why your sons seem to have so much spare time. They should be busy with school work, scouting, science projects, sports, hobbies—the list is endless.

Boys who are encouraged to channel their time and energy constructively will not be sitting in the driveway by the hour, draining the gas tank.

Reluctant Widow

Dear Ann: I'm a retired farmer, 58 years of age, with a grown family. My wife passed away two years ago. I've taken out a few women but I never was interested in getting married again until now.

I'd marry Dolly in a minute, but one thing is standing in the way. She does not want to get married.

Dolly's husband died four years ago. She is 52 years of age and looks like 35. Dolly says she likes me as a friend but that's as far as it goes.

When I try to hold her hand she says, "Stop the foolishness." Ann, I want this woman for a wife, not a pal. What is your advice?—NOT DEAD YET.

Dear Not Yet: Date other women. This may encourage Dolly to rethink her thinking. After six months, if Dolly still wants to be your pal, give her a Methodist handshake and find a woman who is interested in marriage.

Buzin' Cousin

Dear Ann: My cousin and I went all through school together and have been lifelong friends. We've had crushes on the same fellows and were competitors in debate and oratory.

Recently she has made some cutting remarks. I was shocked last evening when she told a number of people in my presence that in our younger days my mother was such a poor housekeeper I used to ask my dates to pick me up at her house. The truth is that when our home was being remodeled I did this once.

Today I called her and asked why she said such a thing and she replied, "You're too sensitive. Everyone exaggerates a little to make a point. You have no sense of humor."

I'd like your opinion. & NOT LAUGHING.

Dear Not Laughing: People who make cutting remarks and then criticize your sense of humor are destructive and they don't deserve to be counted as friends.

Tell your cousin your sense of humor is just fine, which is more than can be said for her integrity. And next time don't wait till the next day. Nail her on the spot.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Snow And Ice Deliver Blow To Southeast

ATLANTA (AP) — Another winter storm brought snow and ice to the central portion of the Southeast today. It was the fourth snow storm of the winter in a region where snow once a year is the rule.

The snow and freezing rain moved across the region from the Southwest. The storm developed over the northwest Gulf of Mexico and is following a pattern set by earlier winter storms.

The Weather Bureau issued a critical weather warning including a wide area from parts of southwest and central Texas through east central and northeast Texas, southeast Oklahoma, southern Arkansas, northern Louisiana, portions of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and southern Tennessee.

Cold weather dealt Florida a damaging blow Wednesday. The state's winter vegetable crop was damaged, but there was little damage to the citrus crop.

Florida temperatures are not expected to dip below freezing in the aftermath of the current storm as has happened in earlier storms.

Heavy snow fell in north central and northeastern Texas and spread into northern Louisiana and southern Arkansas. Five inches snow fell in a six-hour period in Dallas and four inches in Fort Worth. Rain and some sleet pelted south central and southeastern Texas and southern Louisiana.

Generally dry and clear weather was reported in most other parts of the nation.

May Sew Up 350 Convention Votes

Republicans Stack Up 8 Favorite Son Candidates

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans are stacking up a near-record crop of favorite son aspirants who might sew up as many as 350 votes in early convention presidential nomination balloting.

If all eight presently discussed home-state candidacies materialize, such active seekers of the nomination as Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller could find themselves substantially short of the necessary 655 votes when the San Francisco convention opens July 13.

A sweep in the presidential primaries could alter this situation by collapsing some of the favorite son movements.

For practical purposes, however, the number of primaries influencing delegate votes where contests are likely has been reduced to 10, with a total of 299 convention votes. These include New Hampshire, Maryland, District of Columbia, West Virginia, Florida, Indiana, Illinois, South Dakota, Oregon and California.

Wisconsin, Ohio and Pennsylvania have been eliminated from the primary lists by favorable son arrangements. Wisconsin Republicans plan to give their 30 votes to Rep. John W. Byrnes, Ohio's 58 will go to Gov. James A. Rhodes, and Pennsylvania's 64 to Gov. William W. Scranton, Michigan, without a primary, will cast its 48 votes for Gov. George Romney.

Scranton, who is looked upon by many as a potential major candidate, got a hint Wednesday that he might become an early ballot beneficiary of New Jersey's 40 convention votes. That state has a primary, but major contenders may avoid it.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., the state's top Republican office holder, listed Scranton as a "very attractive possibility" for the nomination. He said the governor is "very hot at the moment."

Colorado Republicans who have leaned toward Goldwater in the past expect to make some decisions at a meeting in Denver this weekend on whether they will back Sen. Gordon Allott as a favorite son.

If Colorado puts its 18 votes in the pot for Allott, the senator's friends hope Idaho will follow suit with its 14 and Wyoming with its 12.

Kentucky Republicans may designate either Sen. Thruston B. Morton or his colleague, Sen. John Sherman Cooper, as a favorite son to hold the state's 24 votes.

In Minnesota, former Rep. Walter H. Judd has agreed to let his name go on the list. That state delegation will cast 28 votes.

If Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, should announce Jan. 27 that she will become a presidential candidate, most of her friends think Maine Republicans would be happy to designate her as their "favorite daughter" and give her 14 votes on the first ballot.

The possibility of favorite son support for Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, the 1960 vice presidential nominee, is likely to be considered in Massachusetts, if Lodge's friends make any headway toward getting him in the race.

Massachusetts, which has a primary, has 34 convention votes.

Lisbon PTA's To Hold Joint Event Monday

LISBON — The Parent-Teacher Associations of McKinley and Lincoln Schools will hold a joint meeting Monday evening at 7:30 in the McKinley auditorium.

"Reading Machines" is the program to be presented by Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Weaver, co-chairmen of the program committee.

Stan Kashuba, representative of the M. N. Martin Co. of Massillon, will demonstrate and explain the operations of the machine.

There will also be junior PTA session.

Jack Teagarden, Noted Trombone Player, Claimed

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The jazz trombone of Jack Teagarden—sometimes lazy and lyrical, sometimes brash and brassy—has been silenced.

Teagarden was found dead Wednesday in his motel room, not far from the night clubs of the historic French Quarter where his Dixieland beat set feet tapping so many times. He was 58.

An autopsy was planned today to determine the cause of death.

Teagarden was found face down on the floor. He wore a dress shirt and undershorts.

His last engagement was at the Dream Room, a Bourbon Street nightclub within earshot of his motel room.

The engagement was scheduled to end today, said Walter Noto, co-owner of the Dream Room, "but he took sick on Thursday the 9th."

"About one o'clock in the morning, he said he couldn't play anymore," said Noto. "I didn't know he was still in town. I thought he was going to his home at Pompano Beach, Fla., the next day."

Almost entirely self-taught, Teagarden played his trombone with its pulsating rhythms throughout the nation's jazz haunts for the past four decades. He had a style all his own, jazz experts said.

Teagarden, a heavy-set, moon-faced man, was also a band leader and jazz singer of note. His husky singing voice sounded not unlike the bellows of his lazy trombone.

County Planning Unit Will Convene Monday

LISBON — E. H. Wright, director of the Ashtabula County Planning Commission, will be the guest speaker at the Columbiana County Planning Commission meeting Monday at 8 p. m. in the county commissioners' office in the Courthouse.

Floyd Lower, chairman, will appoint committees.

Sen. Byrd Files For Re-Election

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia Senator Robert C. Byrd of Sophia filed for re-election yesterday, asking his supporters to return him to Washington to help the state's economy.

The Raleigh County Democrat who became the state's junior senator in 1958 by defeating Republican Chapman Revercomb of Charleston, said "the best campaigning I can do would be to stay on the job in Washington."

Byrd already has one opponent for the May primary. William F. Champe, a research chemist from Culloden, in Cabell County, has announced he will try to unseat Byrd.

Champe, 40, is employed by International Nickel Co. in Huntington. He has degrees from both Marshall and West Virginia universities.

Bradley Hands Cincy 4th Setback, 1st League Defeat

Davidson Registers 14th Straight In Weird 52-49 Finish

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The end of an era seems at hand for Cincinnati in college basketball.

For six straight years, starting with the advent of Oscar Robertson, "the Big O," the Bearcats have swept all before them in the tough Missouri Valley Conference and last March just missed an unprecedented third straight national championship by losing in overtime to Chicago Loyola.

Robertson graduated after the 1960 season and Coach George Smith moved up to director of athletics. But the triumphant parade continued under new Coach Ed Jucker whose teams won a fantastic 82 of 89 games the last three years. Included were winning streaks of 27 and 37 straight.

Now, however, the Bearcats already have lost four games, the most in five years, and the hardest part of their MVC schedule still is ahead. UC still is dangerous and eighth-ranked nationally with nine wins against major opposition, but the Bearcats can't afford any more slips.

The Bradley Braves administered UC's fourth defeat Wednesday night, 87-77, and in the process ended the Cats winning streak of 41 on their home court. In fact it was the first MVC game the Bearcats have lost in the fieldhouse.

Joe Strawder, with 33 points, and Levern Tart, with 24, broke the game wide open for Bradley in the second half. All-America Ron Bonham threw in 25 for Cincinnati, but missed his last seven shots from the field.

The fifth-ranked unbeaten Davidson Wildcats, the only other team in The Associated Press Top Ten to see action

Wednesday, came through with their 14th straight triumph, a weird 52-49 decision over Richmond.

The Wildcats, ahead 48-45, didn't shoot from the field for the last 13 minutes of play as they went into a deep freeze. Their last four points came on free throws, the last after the final whistle.

Hardin Simmons registered the upset of the night by downing Oklahoma City 87-71 behind Nate Madkins' 28 points. Bud Koper, Oklahoma City star, tossed in 23 before he suffered a cut over his eye late in the game.

Bill Cunningham's 27 points and good defensive work by Bryan McSweeney on Larry Lakins sparked North Carolina to a 79-71 victory over N.C. State while West Virginia and Xavier of Ohio both exploded in the second half to defeat Penn State 84-63 and Louisville 80-79, respectively.

174 Pros Tee Up In Crosby Event

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Sports Writer
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Bing Crosby's National Pro-Amateur Championship—one of golf's most unpredictable events—opened today with conditions ripe for a tournament record score.

A field of 174 pros teed off in the $60,000 competition. Each was paired with an amateur in the concurrent best-ball pro-am battle.

Predictions of good weather through at least Saturday heightened chances that Billy Casper's tournament record of 277 might fall. A field including much of golf's top names further increased the record possibility.

Al Geiberger, among the hottest professionals in late 1963 and early 1964, predicted it will take under 280 to win if the weather holds good.

The field was split in thirds—one group each at Cypress Point, Pebble Beach and the Monterey Peninsula courses. All are par-72 layouts dotted with many traps, sand dunes and shot-wasting tangles of rough.

Despite good weather last year, Casper's winning score was only 285. He set his record in 1958 and only once since then has the winning total dipped below 282.

Much attention was focussed on the 1964 debut of Jack Nicklaus, 1963 PGA and Masters king who delayed his start to get a rest. Arnold Palmer was trying to erase memories of the 1963 Crosby when he played one stretch of seven-over-par and finally was disqualified for erroneously playing a provisional ball after rapping a tee shot into a tide pool.

Gary Player is the only member of golf's Big Three not on hand. He stayed in South Africa for the arrival of his fourth child. Art Wall and Paul Hareney, winners of 1964's other tournaments and 1963 Open champion Julius Boros also drew attention.

The field will rotate around the three courses for the first three rounds. The 50 low pro-am teams and pros in money competition play Sunday's final round at Pebble Beach before a national television audience.

Meeting Scheduled Today

AL Club Owners Expected To Deny Finley Permission To Move Team

NEW YORK (AP)—American League club owners were expected to deny Charles O. Finley permission to move the Kansas City Athletics to Louisville and, The Associated Press learned, make these other rulings at today's specially called meeting:

1. Recommend a stiff fine be imposed on Finley for signing a contract with the State of Kentucky to play in Louisville for the 1964 and 1965 seasons without seeking approval of the league.
2. Order Finley to renegotiate with Kansas City civic officials for a new lease.
3. Appoint a committee to serve as an arbitration board.

This committee will decide on the fair and equitable provisions of the lease. Actually two meetings were scheduled. Joe Cronin, president of the American League, met with the five-man board of directors at 10 a.m. EST. The full scale league meeting was slated for 1 p.m. EST.

Barring a complete change of heart, the owners were expected to give Finley an unanimous NO. At least five clubs — New York, Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit and Boston—have gone on record as saying they will vote against the A's owner. Only four negative votes are required to keep him in Kansas City.

Under the rules, Finley needs six votes other than his own to move the team. The major league constitution says three-fourths vote is necessary, except in the case of a 10-team league when seven affirmative votes are needed.

Finley arrived in town Wednesday but declined to discuss his chances.

Hall Appointed WVU Grid Aide
MORGANTOWN (AP)—Galen Hall, 23-year-old former Penn State quarterback, was hired Wednesday as assistant football coach at West Virginia University.

The WVU Athletic Council announced the signing of Hall who will have charge of offensive backfield men under head coach Gene Corum. Hall replaces Jim Walshall who resigned after the 1963 season.

A native of Altoona, Pa., Hall has been with the Washington Redskins and New York Jets professional football teams during the past two seasons.

He also was an outstanding quarterback for Penn State Coach Rip Engle, guiding the Nittany Lions to a 30-15 victory over Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl three years ago.

Bernard (Peck) Hickman started the new basketball season, his 20th at the University of Louisville, with 374 victories and 147 setbacks.

The first concrete street in America was constructed in 1891 in Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Oakland Raiders Sign Susquehanna U. Back
OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The Oakland Raiders announced today signing of Don Green, 6-foot 200-pound back from Susquehanna University and fifth draft choice of the American Football League club.

Green is the sixth rookie among the Raiders top 10 draft choices to sign up. The club has signed seven rookies altogether. The 21-year-old from Harrisburg, Pa., was a quarterback in college. The Raiders said he will be tried as defensive safety or quarterback.

Fight Results
Wednesday's Fights
MIAMI BEACH—Sugar Cliff, 152, Bahamas, outpointed Willie James, 150, Miami, 10.

BARCELONA, Spain — Fred Galiana, 148½, Spain, stopped Tigre Amarquaye, 149, Thana, 3.

TOKYO—James Muir Goodwin, 158, Richmond, Calif., stopped Takao Maemizo, 157½, Japan, 5.

OU Belts Miami To Tie For Lead
By The Associated Press
Ohio University and Miami were tied in the tight Mid-American Conference race today after the Bobcats handed the Redskins their first league loss, 67-57, Wednesday night at Athens.

Both schools have a 4-1 Conference mark. Xavier overcame a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat Louisville 80-79 on the Musketeers' boards. Steve Thomas of Xavier, one of the nation's leading scorers, boosted his game average from 30.9 to 31.2 with a 35-point performance.

On the Ohio Conference, Ohio Wesleyan gambled on one final shot but missed as the Bishops dropped a 55-53 thriller to Wittenberg.

Joe Daunic, who had 14 points for the night, missed the shot that would have tied the score for the Bishops and sent the contest into overtime.

Baldwin-Wallace beat down a late rally by Mount Union to defeat the Purple Raiders 77-69. Roland Gordon led the B-W scorers with 27.

In other games, Ashland downed Defiance 83-67 to win its second Mid-Ohio Conference game of the season, compared to a single setback.

Central Has Lost Last 3; Midland, Oak Glen In Home Tilts

East Liverpool returns to Steubenville, Midland goes after its 14th straight victory and Oak Glen shoots for its fourth win in a row to feature an 11-game schedule Friday night in the district hardwoods.

The Potters turned in probably their best 20 minutes of basketball last Friday in Steubenville against Big Red but faded in the late stages of the game to suffer their sixth loss in nine games.

Coach Jim Harris will take his team into the Community Arena Friday night to meet Steubenville Central.

The Potters lost a day of practice Monday due to the heavy snow but worked out Tuesday and Wednesday.

HARRIS won't change the lineup for the Central game and hopes Frank McComas can deliver another scoring punch similar to last week's brilliant 27-point effort.

Randy Stover, 6-4 pivot, and Bob Forzano seem to be over ankie injuries and should be ready for Friday's battle. Rounding out the starting lineup will be Bob Maltarich and Bill Hall.

FOUR CENTRAL starters are 6 feet or better but the Crusaders have been a hot club suddenly turned cold.

John Neese, former Steubenville College standout, has watched his team win five straight games then lose three in a row.

That's where the Crusaders stand now after dropping contests to Bellaire St. John's, 64-50, Big Red, 67-45 and Weirton Madonna 57-42.

CENTRAL had previously defeated Tornado, St. John's, Weirton Madonna, Follansbee, St. Anthony and Wellsville before dropping its first contest.

The only returning regular from last year is 6-foot Rich Donnelly. Jack Sunseri another starter won a letter last year. He is the tallest member of the starting five hitting 6-2.

THREE CAGERS up from the reserve squad who have cracked the starting lineup include Ralph Carapellotti, 5-10, Mike DeAngelo 6-1 and Jim Clark 6-1. All three are seniors.

The reserve game Friday night will start at 6:30 with the varsity tilt about 8 p.m.

MIDLAND will await the invasion of Monaca Friday night as Coach Hank Kuzma sends his Leopards after their 14th victory and eighth Section 8 decision.

Monaca currently holds third place in the League standings with a 5-2 record.

OAK GLEN, after dropping five in a row, have hit on a winning combination reaching its peak last week by bombarding Wellsville.

Coach Bob Starkey's Golden Bears will be shooting for their day after cutting down Beaver Local, Weirton Madonna and Wellsville.

Beaver Local, after tasting victory for the first time this season last week, treks to Wellsville where the Tigers have accounted for three victories in eight games so far this season.

LISBON will attempt to get back on the winning track at East Palestine. The Blue Devils, after winning eight straight games, lost to Poland last Saturday on their own court.

The defeat eliminated Lisbon from an undefeated season and also knocked Coach Gary Pike's team from first place in the Tri-County League.

In other Tri-County action, Leetonia visits Columbiana.

UNITED will go after its seventh victory in 10 contests by hosting Canfield.

An Inter-County League battle Friday finds Lowellville visiting Crestview.

Southern Local takes on a strong West Branch team but the Indians are an upset minded bunch after knocking off Springfield Local last week.

South Side returns to action this week traveling to Avella.

In a big eight game, Salem will visit Niles.

Nine games Saturday will wrap up the weekend's 20 game slate.

Thomas Will Face 3 Seven-Foot Jumpers
NEW YORK (AP) — John Thomas of the Boston Athletic Association, off to his best start since he first jumped seven feet in 1959, will face three other seven-foot high jumpers Jan. 30 in the 57th Millrose Games at Madison Square Garden.

Gene Johnson, the national outdoor champion from the University of California, Paul Stuber of the University of Oregon and Stig Pettersson, Swedish veteran, are the others who have hit the seven-foot mark or better.

Others in the field are Finland's Henrik Hellen, Guatemala's Teodoro Palacios and Terry Lelewellyn of the University of Oregon.

President Welcomes Back Davis Cup Team

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson welcomed the Davis Cup back to the United States, gave the tennis players who won it a grand tour of the White House and learned he has a tennis court in the back yard.

With the large, 63-year-old silver trophy gleaming on a table in the Cabinet room, Johnson told the young men Wednesday their victory proved they have "the desire for the pursuit of excellence."

On hand for the ceremony were Chuck McKinley and his wife, Dennis Ralston, Marty Riessen, nonplaying captain Rob Kelleher and his son Jeff, and Edward A. Turville, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

Johnson said he was pleased that the players—who captured the Cup from Australia last month—were from all parts of the country, especially the two who are products of Trinity University in San Antonio.

This was a reference to McKinley and Frank Froehling, another team member recovering from an operation and not at the White House, who both attended the Texas school. The fifth member of the team, Gene Scott also was unable to attend.

During the tour, McKinley asked the President: "Do you have a tennis court here?"

"I don't think so," he replied, "although right out yonder is where President Eisenhower practiced some golf shots."

Mrs. Pauline Betz Addie, former U.S. and Wimbledon women's tennis champion who accompanied the Davis Cup team to the White House, told the President there was indeed a cement court out there "somewhere under the snow."

"It could be," the President said, grinning. "I've only been here 50 days and I'm not sure just what's in this place."

Newsome, Komives Stage Battle For Point Honors

BOWLING GREEN — While Manny Newsome of Western Michigan and Howard (Butch) Komives of Bowling Green are battling for top honors in the national collegiate scoring race, their own Mid-American Conference scoring derby should be just as exciting.

In the first MAC report, Newsome has jumped in front with a 37.3 average in three games while Komives carries a 32.5 figure for four games. In their head-on battle last weekend at Western, Komives, however, gained the individual honors, 42-39. Each tallied 14 goals but the Bowling Green guard hit 14 of 16 free throws. Newsome had 11 of 12 at the line.

Larry Jones of Toledo, who is expected to sit out the rest of the season with a broken hand, is trailing the big scoring pair with a 23.5 average. Jeff Gehring and Charles Coles of Miami are next in line at 22.8 and 19 points each.

Miami has the rebounding leader in Charley Dimkins who is pulling them off the boards at 12.5 per game while sophomore Willie Thomas of Western Michigan and Don Hilt of Ohio are at 10.7 and 10.00 per game in this department.

Teamwise Western Michigan shows why it has the top offensive average at 89 per game with the best shooting figure at better than 52 per cent. Miami leads the defense at 66.5 and also tops the rebounding column with 47.8 retrieves per game.

The University of Kentucky has two of the tallest guards in college basketball in 6-6 sophomore Tom Kron and 6-5 senior Charles Ishmael.

Folley Faces Chualo In Heavy Fight

CLEVELAND (AP)—A boxer on the ascent and another who needs a victory badly if he is ever to get a shot at the championship describes the combatants for Friday night's televised heavyweight fight between Canadian champion George Chualo and Zora Folley.

With youth and a heavier punch on his side is Chualo, 26, from Toronto. He won all six of his fights last year, his most recent being an early knockout of Mike DeJohn last September. He is ranked ninth in the world.

Folley, 31-year-old father of seven from Chandler, Ariz., is a 12-year veteran. He was knocked out by Sonny Liston in three rounds in 1960 before Liston became champion.

Folley, ranked No. 6, is a combination boxer-puncher with a 65-6-3 record, including 36 knockouts. Bill Swift, Folley's manager, is doubtful that Folley would remain in the fight game long if he loses a place in the top 10. A loss to Chualo could hasten his retirement.

Chualo never has been knocked down. He has a 25-7-2 record and boasts 19 knockouts.

Low Scoring Contest Tops Play In NBA

By The Associated Press
Who says the National Basketball Association has a bunch of score-happy teams?

You couldn't prove it by San Francisco and Detroit—at least not by their game Wednesday night.

Beaver Local Matmen Face Portage Tonight

Beaver Local's wrestling forces will meet Portage Southeast tonight at 6:30 on the mats at Beaver Local High School.

The game, won by San Francisco 89-79, was the lowest scoring games of the season.

But it was the second quarter that perhaps started people thinking the teams were trying to revolutionize the professional game. Each team scored only 11 points in that 12-minute span a feat as rare as NBA players under six feet tall.

Both teams recovered slightly after halftime, with the Warriors getting the better of the increased scoring the rest of the way.

The total point output for Detroit was its lowest at home in more than seven years.

Wilt Chamberlain paced San Francisco in scoring with 32 points. Bailey Howell had 21 for Detroit.

In a couple of more normal games, Los Angeles edged St. Louis 111-109 and Boston kept its slate clean against Baltimore 113-108.

Elgin Baylor's twisting flip shot from close in gave the Lakers their victory in the contest that was tied 30 times.

Cliff Hagan led all scorers with 39 points while Jerry West finished with 36 for Los Angeles.

Baltimore, which now has lost five in a row to Boston, came within three points of the Celtics at 111-108 with 40 seconds to play. But Sam Jones clinched the Boston triumph with a shot from the corner.

All eight Boston players scored in double figures. Baltimore's Rod Thorn and Terry Dischinger tallied 23 each.

Titan Missile Hits

Mark At 5,800 Miles

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—A Titan 2 missile struck a target 5,800 miles away Wednesday in a successful dual demonstration of its ability to orbit astronauts and deliver a nuclear warhead.

The Air Force said the flight was primarily a weapons test of the United States' most powerful operational rocket. But the vehicle also carried devices applicable to Titan 2's assignment to boost the two-man Gemini spacecraft.

Operators Of Fairs

Cautioned On Reports

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The operators of Ohio's county and independent fairs have been cautioned to fill out their annual reports and financial accounts carefully. Otherwise, an assistant to the state agriculture director warned Wednesday, their funds could be held up for 1961.

The caution came from administrative assistant Bruce Gosney at the 39th annual convention of the Ohio Fair Managers Association. The deadline for the reports is today.

"In fact, he is convinced that the best therapy for me is applause."

Hope went to San Francisco expecting to re-enter Children's Hospital where he underwent treatment last month.

Final Period Proves Long For Rangers

By The Associated Press
Toronto's timekeeper claims third periods in Maple Leaf Gardens are 20 minutes long just like everywhere else in the National Hockey League.

But it felt more like 49 for New York Coach Red Sullivan Wednesday night. Sullivan sweated it out as the Rangers all but tossed away a 5-0 lead and held on for a 5-4 victory over the Leafs in Wednesday's only NHL game.

Everything came up roses for the Rangers in the first two sessions as they peppered Leaf goalie Don Simmons, who let almost as many shots get by as he managed to stop. Simmons had 13 saves as New York had a 5-1 lead after two periods.

Suddenly the tide changed as three Leaf goals in 8½ minutes of the third period had Sullivan gasping. But the Rangers held on and escaped with their first victory in Toronto this season and only their second in the last 22 games at Maple Leaf Gardens.

The victory moved the Rangers within five points of the fourth-place Detroit Red Wings and left Toronto still tied with Montreal for second place, three points behind league-leading Chicago.

Western Michigan Star Tops Nation In Points

NEW YORK (AP) — Manny Newsome of Western Michigan tossed in 35 points against Central Michigan Tuesday and became college basketball's leading individual scorer.

Newsome moved ahead of (Butch) Komives of Bowling Green, who managed 29 points against Kent State the same night.

The weekly statistics for major colleges, released today by the NCAA Service Bureau, show

Newsome on top with an average of 33.5 on 435 points in 13 games. Komives, No. 1 the last two weeks, now is second at 32.7 with 294 in nine games.

Dynamite, Time Device Studied At Blast Scene

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — Two unexploded sticks of dynamite and a battered timing device found at the scene of the latest explosion to hit the Molded Fiber Glass Body Co. were being studied today by authorities.

Robert Morrison, Molded Fiber president, said the explosive that knocked 14 glass bricks through the wall of the building early Wednesday had been placed about eight feet from his office. The explosive was on a ledge outside the building, and the blast hurled bricks into his secretary's office, Morrison said.

No one was injured. The bombing was the second to hit the plant within three days. Morrison estimated damage at $200 to $300.

Unexploded dynamite was found also after a Jan. 6 explosion that ripped a beer and wine carry-out store operated by a man who has been working at the struck plant. Police Lt. Herbert F. Andrews said the source of that dynamite had not yet been determined.

Leaders of striking United Auto Workers Local 1169 have denied the strikers had anything to do with the series of bombings.

The plant was hit by a dynamite explosion that shattered windows Sunday.

Dave Manson, 30, the pilot, and Martin Behnke, 24, the passenger, were killed in the crash. Manson was a pilot for Claycraft Brick Co. of Columbus. Behnke was an employee of a Columbus natural gas company.

KRISPY SANDWICHES

- 32 Thin - style saltine cracker rectangles (less than 1/2 lb.)
  - 24 small slices canned or cooked ham
  - 24 Small slices sharp cheese
  - Tomato sauce
- Preheat oven to 350 F. Place 8 of the 2-cracker rectangles in 2 rows on baking sheet. Put a slice of ham and a slice of cheese, both cut to fit size of double cracker, on top of each rectangle.

Add another double cracker and another slice of ham and slice of cheese. Repeat, building up a stack to four layers of double crackers, separated with ham and cheese slices.

Place a narrow strip of cheese lengthwise on top cracker in each stack. Heat in oven about 10 to 15 minutes, or until cheese has melted slightly. Serve with snappy tomato sauce, seasoned to taste. Makes 8 sandwiches.

To Halt Israel River Action

Arab Parley To Set Up Joint Military Command

By GEORGE MCARTHUR CAIRO (AP) — The 13-nation Arab summit conference has agreed to set up a joint military command in an effort to head off Israel's diversion of Jordan River waters.

In a remarkable display of unity, the often feuding leaders of 100 million Arabs voted Wednesday night to establish a military committee with "administrative and financial possibilities as well as permanent headquarters, and all that these entail," a spokesman said.

Foreign ministers of the nations were to meet today to put the conference resolution in final form. The Arab league's military and financial committees also meet today to discuss the new command.

A final summit session to approve the resolution was expected tonight.

Though the spokesman said Arab leaders had agreed on a "positive solution" of the problem raised by Israel's irrigation project, it still was generally doubted they anticipate war with Israel soon.

The spokesman would give no details of the new command and declined to say whether all Arab states would participate.

The spokesman said the agreement did not specify the area in which Arab forces might operate and did not limit the command to any specific task. He would not say whether troops of one nation would be stationed in the territory of another. He said no site had been selected for the command's headquarters.

This would be the first joint command of the entire Arab world.

The United States and Britain made inquiries through their Cairo embassies about the Arab military plans.

In Tel Aviv, Premier Levi Eshkol of Israel warned the Arab leaders "we shall frustrate any attempt to interfere with us."

100 Years Old In 1964

Nevada Plans Year-Long Centennial Celebration

CARSON CITY, Nev. — This sprightly little lady of a state is 100 years old in 1964 and she's making no bones about it.

She's been primping for two years now to provide a big birthday party for Nevada residents and to entice as many non - Nevadans as possible to join in the fun.

And if the out - of - state folk decide to stay for a few days, drop a few coins in the slot machines and spend some money for souvenirs, so much the better.

The spree starts Jan. 1 and runs all year but has a focal point in Admission Day activities in Carson City, the capital, Oct. 31.

Why spend more than $300,000, as Nevada plans, for a birthday party?

Gov. Grant Sawyer calls it "an opportunity for us to let the nation and the world know that Nevada is dedicating itself to a new century of progress with the same enthusiasm and fervor exhibited by our forefathers one hundred years ago."

But a 75-page centennial commission planning booklet also makes clear the centennial is a good time to do some hornblowing: "The publicity value to be gained by the state during the centennial year cannot be estimated in dollars and cents."

The man chosen to see the state takes advantage of every practical promotion opportunity is Clyde Anderson, whose showman's background runs from the circus to theater and television production.

"We're a glorified tourist bureau in a way," Anderson says from behind a desk cluttered with papers and a variety of gadgets bearing the centennial seal.

The commission has a budget of $250,000 and figures to augment that with another $80,000, having sold rights to the seal for commercial uses. The commission couldn't hope to sponsor the programs it wants, even with $2 million, Anderson says.

Anderson and the commission encourage communities with established events such as fairs and rodeos to package them in a centennial theme. Counties and towns are urged to launch new celebrations that will carry on after the centennial party is over.

The Washoe County committee decided to revive the national air races, discontinued after the 1952 edition in Cleveland, partly because of safety reasons.

"This thing could be the greatest," Anderson says of the races, scheduled in the Reno area in September. "There's plenty of space out here."

Several counties plan to kick off local celebrations with costume balls. Visitors will be able to watch the camel races in Virginia City and burro races in Nye County — both with centennial twist. They'll pan for gold from a sluice box in the streets of Winnemucca, and watch men racing with bags of wheat over their shoulders from Wabuska to Pizen Switch, now called Yerington Wells residents are thinking of sprucing up their buildings with false fronts and Eureka citizens are putting life into the old opera house.

The U. S. Mint, headed by Nevada's Eva Adams, has been authorized by Congress to strike 20,000 centennial medallions that will sell at Nevada banks for $5 each. They'll be made from Nevada silver providing enough can be obtained. The fabulous Comstock mines have long since been boarded up.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE EARTH

QUESTION: How far is it around the earth and what is inside?

ANSWER: If you could slip a huge tape measure around earth's equator, as the young folks in our picture are doing, you would find that it measures 24,902 miles. This distance around earth's outside is its circumference; but it has another measurement, the diameter, which is straight through the widest part. Earth's diameter is about 7,927 miles from one spot on the equator to another on the opposite side. But if you measured from one pole through the center to another it would only be about 7,900 miles, which shows that Earth is very slightly flattened at the poles. The earth is mostly composed of rock which would be found to be hotter as one burrowed down. At the center (1) an "inner core" is thought to lie—about 1,630 miles across. Above this (2) rests the "outer core," of heavy heated rock which is probably in a "plastic" or flowing state. The "mantle" (3), of heavy rock which may move under pressure, rests upon this and finally (4) comes the "outer core," about 20 miles thick, which contains the seas and continents. Below the sea the rock is mostly basalt, but the continents are largely granite, with soil created by the action of water and air.

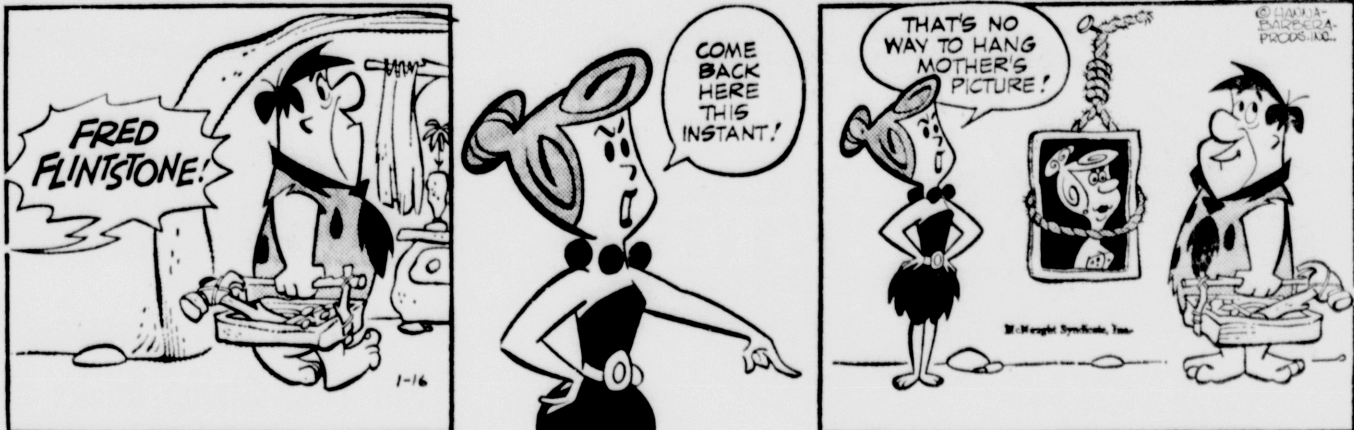

FOR YOU TO DO: It is interesting to compare the sizes of the various planets in our solar system. We show one smaller than the earth and another which is larger. Find out about one which is so close to earth's size that it is almost a twin.

Martin J. Hurd of North Sydney, Nova Scotia, wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.

Rhodes, Taft, Devine Due At GOP Dinners
WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes and Ohio Reps. Robert Taft Jr. and Samuel L. Devine will participate in

Republican fund-raising dinners throughout the country Jan. 29. The Republican National Committee said it expects that more than 25,000 persons will attend the dinners and it hopes the proceeds will wipe out the $225,000 deficit still remaining from the 1960 presidential campaign. Rhodes will speak in Phoenix, Ariz., Taft in Wilmington, Del., and Devine in Palm Beach, Fla.

Blanket Of Silence Thrown Over Castro
MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet authorities today lowered a blanket of silence over Fidel Castro.

The Cuban prime minister's visit was ignored by press and radio except for a brief item in "Moscow Pravda" from Havana that the Cubans were highly interested in the visit.

Sends Thanks To Pope
VATICAN CITY (AP) — An emissary from Patriarch Athenagoras of Constantinople (Istanbul) called on Pope Paul VI today to thank him for meeting the Orthodox spiritual leader in the Holy Land. Metropolitan Athenagoras, Orthodox archbishop of Britain, was received by the Roman Catholic ruler in the Apostolic Palace.

The only vice president ever to defeat a president in an election was Thomas Jefferson. He had been John Adams' vice president from 1796 to 1800 and defeated him in the Presidential campaign of 1800.
